

More council cash for The Hub

...BUT NOT WITHOUT A FIGHT

HAVING already sanctioned funding of £60,000 for the new Hub Youth Club in Lyme Regis, town councillors have voted for further grants of £20,000 over the next two financial years.

And whilst it was a majority decision - 10 votes for and two against - it was not approved without opposition.

By Philip Evans

The proposal to include funding of £10,000 for the financial years 2012-2013 and 2013-2014, was included in a service level agreement which has been drawn up between the town council and Lyme Regis Development Trust which, is leading The Hub project in partnership with Dorset County Council Youth Service and the Woodroffe School.

The purpose of the agreement is for the town council to provide support to the development trust for the operation

■ THOUSANDS of people poured into Lyme Regis on Saturday morning to see the RAF aerobatic team, The Red Arrows, get Lifeboat Week off to a spectacular start with a breathtaking display over Lyme Bay. Glorious sunshine and near perfect conditions saw the arrows perform their intricate moves in a d 25-minute display, which brought gasps from the spectators lining the seafront and public gardens and sitting on the beach.

WINDSURFING enthusiast, Murray Saunders, has just opened his water sports shop, Boylos, which he has run as an online store for two years, in the new-look seafront shelters in Lyme Regis.

The shop stocks Oxbow and O'Shea surf clothing, Xcel wetsuits, Ocean and Earth surfing accessories, sunglasses, rucksacks and other accessories.

A former Woodroffe School pupil, Murray, 26, went on to study business and accounting at Exeter University before starting an advertising sales and marketing business for five major windsurfing brands.

He now runs Boylos with his partner Ellie Boyle, and lives just outside Lyme Regis.

■ WHAT made you open the Boylos shop after running it online for two years?

I used to windsurf in Lyme Regis when I was younger and there was no one to offer me help and encouragement, or no where to get any advice. I really wanted to encourage more young people to take part in the sport - that's where it came from.

■ IS Lyme Regis a good place for water sports?

It's no Hawaii but it's amazing for windsurfing. There is a good surf scene along the coast and it's obviously great for kayaking and sailing, for which there's the sailing club. Paddle boarding, when you stand on a board and paddle along the sea, seems to be the new thing to do as well.

■ WHICH water sports do you enjoy?

Windsurfing is the main one for me. I've taken part in the windsurfing pro-tours for the past few years and came 12th last year, and I've entered other competitions as well and travelled around Britain to do it.

We also enjoy surfing, wakeboarding, scuba diving, and last year we had a boat so we did a bit of water skiing. Ellie likes paddle boarding at the moment but I think I would find it boring.

■ WHERE is the best place you've been for windsurfing?

St Ives Bay in Cornwall is definitely my favourite place to go.

■ WHAT do you think of Lyme's new seafront shelters?

They're a real asset to the town. A lot of hard work has obviously gone into them from the local community and they present Lyme Regis the way it should be presented.

■ WHAT do you like about working in Lyme Regis?

I like the people and the community. Everybody is so friendly and pro-active, for example with Lifeboat Week and Regatta and Carnival Week - everybody is so hands-on and really gets stuck in. It seems like loads of people retire here and then say, "Let's do something!"

That kind of community is really unique, the only other place I think I've come across it is in Sydney, Australia, when everyone is on their boats.

■ WHERE would be your ideal holiday destination?

I would really like to go to Chile because they have really good conditions there for windsurfing but there is also a completely different culture to soak up.

I'm hoping to go to Hawaii this autumn, which is great for surfing and things but it's an American state so I guess the culture there won't be so different.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I think I would put it in a bank account and forget about it until I was about 60. I need to work now, and then I could retire and do whatever I wanted!

Another £20,000 for The Hub

tion and development of The Hub. A condition of the funding is that the development trust will ensure that The Hub is open to young people and the community.

As well as the additional £20,000 over the next two financial years, the town council has already agreed to give The Hub £50,000 towards the cost of a new roof and £10,000 towards running costs in a bid to get the facility open as soon as possible.

The additional funding was raised during the public forum session at last week's meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee by former long-serving councillor Stan Williams, who lost his seat at the last election.

Mr Williams expressed concerns about the council committing to further funding over the next two years. He said there were other organisations in the town who would like to know what they might be getting in the future and said that volunteers at the Woodmead Halls, of which he was chairman, were "despondent" over the issue.

He thought it would be better for the council to await until "budget time" before agreeing to more money for The Hub.

The additional funding was opposed by former mayor Michaela Ellis who pointed out that the council had already agreed to give The Hub £50,000 towards the roof and a one-off payment of £10,000. They had not agreed to give more money for the next two years.

"This (funding youth provisions) is a county council responsibility and Lyme Regis Town Council has already done its part in helping to get this project off the ground," she said.

Councillor Ellis said that one of the reasons she supported the initial funding was that they were told that work on the roof was imminent and that InSPARation Cafe would be moving into The Hub almost immediately.

"There are many other good causes in this town which could do with our help. What are we going to do when each of these organisations come to us? We do not have the money to do it. It would be much better for the council to use this £10,000 to pay off some of our loans."

Councillor Owen Lovell also questioned why a start had not been made on the roof and why InSPARation had not moved into the building as promised.

He also stressed that the provision of youth facilities was a county council responsibility and that they should be putting more pressure on Dorset County Council to give more financial assistance.

Councillor Lovell also drew attention to a £4,500 administration charge being made by the development trust and asked why such a function could not be carried out on a voluntary basis.

Committee chairman Mark Gage, who also chairs The Hub Development Group, said the roof had been delayed because they had not been able to get the necessary road closure for the scaffolding during the summer months. And he confirmed that the InSPARation Cafe would be in The Hub by the end of the summer, which he thought was "an amazing achievement".

Councillor Gage thought it was time that the council showed its commitment to the youth of the town, adding: "If we do not do it, no one else is going to."

Referring to the comments of Mr Williams at the start of the meeting, he pointed out that the council had given "substantial funding" to the Woodmead Halls over the years.

He pointed out that the additional funding would enable the development trust and The Hub to plan for the next three years and he was happy to bring a breakdown of the administrative costs to the next meeting if so required.

Councillor Rikey Austin pointed out that The Hub would not only house the youth club but other youth organisations in the town. Councillor Lovell recognised the good work that had been carried out by the fundraisers for The Hub but re-emphasised that the county council should be funding the youth club.

He added: "It is not us who should be funding it. I would like to see something in the agreement that there will be persistent efforts made to get the county council to give some funding."

He also called for an assurance that the £22,500 in funding from the county council for InSPARation would be transferred The Hub.

Councillor Lucy Campbell said it was important for the county to show its commitment to The Hub so that they could access other funding.

Councillor Barbara Austin, a trustee with the former Club For Young People, said she wanted to put the record straight in that the trustees worked extremely hard over a number of years to keep the club going because the county had withdrawn funding.

Councillor Ellis commented: "This council has given £60,000. That shows we are committed to it."

The Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, said they should not lose sight of the commitment given by the county council in acquiring The Hub.

Councillor Ellis pointed out that The Hub was asking for more money but some of this was going back to the development trust for an administrative fee.

Councillor Chris Clipson pointed out that The Hub was in the "gestation" period. They were in the early stages and should be doing everything they could to encourage it to "take off".

Councillor Ellis said she would like to see the money go towards paying off the loans on the Marine Parade shelters and in that way all the people of Lyme would benefit and not just one group.

Councillor Anita Williams, a development trust volunteer, and Councillor Terry O'Grady, chairman of The Hub fundraising committee, took no part in the debate and left the council chamber.

Charity auction raises £4,500 for Sam's fund

A MASSIVE total of £4,500 was raised at an auction in aid of Uplyme resident and cancer sufferer Sam Daubany-Nunn on Saturday night.

The auction, held at the Nag's Head in Lyme Regis, saw duo Phil Street and Mike Higgs come out of auctioneering retirement. Lots included Deep Purple memorabilia donated by Ian Gillan, items of furniture, wine, cakes, jewellery, toys and much more.

Nag's Head licensee Debbie Hamon said: "Thank you to everybody who generously donated a took part."

The money will go toward's the fund for specialist cancer treatment in Germany for 18-year-old Sam.

First users raise £255

THE Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK raised £255 at a Red Arrows champagne reception in the new Marine Parade shelters on Saturday.

Community to run Charmouth library?

RESIDENTS of Charmouth were disappointed this week to receive news that Dorset County Council had decided to cut funding for the village's library service.

Charmouth Library is one of nine facilities across Dorset that will have its funding cut in a bid to save £80,000. County councillors were split over the decision to cut the nine libraries or make savings across all Dorset libraries by cutting opening hours and book funds, and the decision was passed by a single vote despite widespread protest.

It is now hoped that the library could be run voluntarily to remain open in the future.

Chairman of the Friends of Charmouth Library, Hazel Robinson, said: "People in Charmouth have been saddened by the news that the library will be closed unless we can find enough support in the community to keep it open - but you can be sure that we are going to try!"

"There is still a lot going on behind the scenes where Ad Lib (the Association of Dorset Libraries) continues to act as a unit and will be exploring the possibility of a judicial review and, at the same time, negotiating for a better community offer with the council.

"Any takeover by the community does not have to happen until September 2012, so we have time to ask residents what they want in a new-look library, to raise funds and to see if we can find enough enthusiastic volunteers to keep it open."

Celebrating 150 years of lifeboats in Lyme

SOME 200 people are expected to attend the ceremony to mark 150 years of a lifeboat service in Lyme Regis.

The gathering tomorrow (Thursday), part of Lifeboat Week, is set to become a massive reunion with RNLI volunteers past and present meeting after many years.

After widespread appeals, former RNLI crew will be coming to the town from many parts of the country. Contact has also been made with ex-RAF men who crewed the fast launches based in Lyme for 27 years from 1937 when the lifeboat station was closed.

A photographic exhibition is being staged in the revamped shelters on Marine Parade to introduce the current crew to Lifeboat Week visitors, to celebrate the history of lifeboats in the town and to portray the crews of yesteryear.

And the centrepiece will be a magnificent hand-built model of the Thomas Masterman Hardy, the lifeboat stationed in Lyme in 1915, which had sails and a crew of ten oarsmen.

The model has been on show at St Michael's Church since 1985. A tiny plaque fitted to the boat states that it was built for the RNLI by Lt. Col. B.M. Hynes in 1931. Another framed plaque says the model was donated to the church by Miss M.F. Eyre.

The anniversary event at 2pm in the Slipway marquee follows a celebrity auction hosted by Paul Atterbury of "Antiques Roadshow", which starts at 10.30am.

Research for the exhibition of former lifeboats and crew owes much to the Lyme Regis Museum, publications by Mr. T.K. Faragher and David Cozens, and assistance from Ken Gollop and David Manners.

HELLO there, here I am again, to update you on the activities in the TIC in Lyme Regis.

As we approach the school holidays the team here in Guildhall Cottage have already had a busy start to the season with throughput for the first quarter up by approximately three per cent compared with 2010. This is nearly 28,000 people through the door in three months!

We are about to say hello again to The Shanty Theatre Company who join us shortly for their summer season in the Marine Theatre with "The Mysterious and Fantastical Wartime Tale Of The Salty Socks of Dunkirk"... phew! If previous years are anything to go by we are in for a real treat, what a talented bunch. We are now booking for all of the dates, programmes are available to pick up at the TIC.

We also have the Lifeboat Week programmes on sale at £1.50 giving you all the details of this great week.

We are also selling tickets for the Great Dorset Steam Fair, Legends concerts at Woodmead Halls, concerts at St Michael's Church, trips on the Balmoral and much more. Pop in and see us for full details.

The new listing from Sovereign Coaches has just arrived, covering July to September, so why not treat yourself to a day excursion? The list includes shopping trips, visits to National Trust properties, a tour of the Cotswolds to name but a few, and, of course, their very popular coach holidays.

We also have some new publications in stock including "Ebb and Flow" - the story of maritime Lyme Regis, the new Lyme Regis Map at the end of Marine Parade in a fold out version, postcard and greetings card and 2012 calendars and diaries.

Dare I say that we are also starting to think about Christmas, and wanted to let our customers know that we will not be selling the charity Christmas cards this year due to changes with the company that supply them. We will, however, have a large range of locally sourced gifts and souvenirs and hopefully local Christmas cards.

Just to finish with a THANK YOU to all of you who use our services. We may be called the Tourist Information Centre but we are most definitely here for the local residents as well. Pop in and see us when you are passing.

See you soon!

■ ROTARIAN John McCallum presents dictionaries to Year 6 children in Marshwood Primary School

Dictionaries for local school pupils

THEY say that "reading broadens the mind", that it "opens up new worlds", that "a good book is the best of friends".

The promotion of literacy among young people is a key objective of the Rotary Club. To this end the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis has presented dictionaries to 72 children in Year 6 at St Michael's (Lyme Regis), Mrs Ethelston's, (Uplyme) and Marshwood Primary Schools.

Copies of the Usborne Illustrated Dictionary were presented at leaving services last week.

"This dictionary is superbly written and illustrated, an excellent tool for all ages, including adults," said Rotarian Peter Mills.

"In this age when the use of computers and other electronic technology seems to be engulfing every aspect of life it is still true that there is nothing so crucial to the development and advancement of young people as literacy, and this dictionary will help these young people learn and understand. Hopefully it will be well dog-eared and thumbed by the time they leave their next school."

In addition to presenting these dictionaries, the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis has also given £700 to Life Education Wessex, a service that is geared to helping children between the ages three and 11 in Dorset make informed and healthy choices.

The service has visited a number of schools in the area in the past few years, working with the teaching staff and gaining an enthusiastic response from both teachers and children. This award will assist Life Education Wessex in continuing to provide this valuable service to local children, and help give our children a solid foundation in life.

If you would like to learn more about Rotary visit www.lymeregisrotary.org or call John McCallum on 01297 442242.

Walk in the dark for Sam's fund

■ THREE intrepid walkers - Aaron Tattershall, Daniel Buckley and David Manners trekked a total of almost 22 miles across Dartmoor overnight on Friday to raise funds for specialist treatment for Uplyme resident and cancer sufferer, Sam Daubany-Nunn, 18.

The team set off at 8.40pm having been dropped off at Okehampton Army Camp by Sam's uncle, Rob Hamon, who also met them nine hours later near Moretonhampstead.

"It was a very challenging walk" said David, "particularly as we were constantly having to watch where we were stepping in difficult terrain and navigating in the dark posed its own problems."

"Nevertheless, it was great fun and we are pledged to have raised over £1,000 for Sam's fund."

Sensational start to special

LYME Regis Lifeboat Week 2011 got off to a spectacular start on Saturday, when huge crowds descended on the town to watch the Red Arrows in scorching sunshine.

The RAF aerobatic team, which last visited Lyme in 2009, surprised spectators on arrival by flying over Lister Gardens out into the bay before performing.

RNLI organisers hope

LIFEBOAT WEEK SPECIAL By Francesca Evans

that the event raised a record-breaking collection.

Other events on the opening day of Lifeboat Week - this year celebrating 150 years of lifeboats in Lyme Regis - included a display by Lyme's own boat, "The Pearl of Dorset" and the all-weather lifeboat from Weymouth. RNLI crew members ran a barbecue on the Slipway, which also raised a record-breaking £2,000. Organisers would like to thank Caterfood in Paignton for donating the rolls, Lyme Regis Football Club and the Rikard family for offering the use of their barbecues and to John, Colin and staff of the Cobb Arms for helping to cook sausages.

Lyme's own celebrity chef Mark Hix raised over £200 at his crab cooking demonstration on Saturday afternoon, compered by View From editor Philip Evans, with each dish being sold for £5.

Mr Hix presented a cheque for over £600 to the RNLI earlier in the week, raised through sales of two specialty ales brewed by Palmers and sold at the Hix Oyster and Fish House in Lister Gardens (see page 7).

Other events so far this week have included an art exhibition, open air church service, songs of praise service with Lyme Regis Town Band, sand sports, quiz night, sand castle competition, crab fishing competition and barn dance.

Children also enjoyed a teddy bear's picnic on Monday afternoon, where they played parachute and singing games with the Little Lost Teddy from Alice's Bear Shop and Sunshine Sam from Boots who handed out sunscreen to the youngsters.

There are plenty more family activities scheduled for the rest of Lifeboat Week, which runs until Sunday, July 31st.

The Twinning Association's annual Admiral Sir George Somers Commemoration Parade from Langmoor Gardens to the Cobb will be held today (Wednesday) at 11.30am followed by a display from the Royal Navy Black Cats at 12pm.

Celebrations to mark this special 150th anniversary year will be held all day tomorrow (Thursday), including an auction with "Antiques Roadshow" star Paul Atterbury at 10.30am, a drop-in from the RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team at 12pm and a special presentation at 2pm.

Other highlights will include the bathtub race, Red Bull Harbour Reach and fireworks display on Saturday and, at 9pm on Sunday, the return of the popular illuminated boats, last seen in Lyme Regis in 2007.

anniversary Lifeboat Week

■ COOKING UP A STORM: Celebrity chef Mark Hix and compere Philip Evans during the crab cooking demo

■ WELCOMING DISPLAY: The lifeboat crew meets spectators on the North Wall

SALES of two fine ales brewed by Palmer's exclusively for celebrity chef and local restaurateur, Mark Hix, have raised more than £600 for the RNLI in Lyme Regis.

Hix Oyster Ale, bottled to Mr Hix's recipe, is a strong dark beer, excellent with oysters, and Hix IPA is an Indian pale ale, which balances hops with classic English malted barley.

Mr Hix, a long-time RNLI supporter, paid five pence from the sale of every 500ml bottle of Hix Oyster Ale sold in his restaurants, including the Hix Oyster & Fish House in Lister Gardens, Lyme Regis, in support of the charity's lifesaving work in the town. The sum for this year came to £646.20 but over two years has raised a total of £1,625.

Head Brewer at Palmer's, Darren Batten, said: "As many of our pubs are based in picturesque waterfront locations, the RNLI is a cause that is very dear to our hearts and we were delighted to support the charity's lifeboats in Lyme Regis."

Mr Hix added: "Having grown up in the Lyme Regis area, it's very important to me to support local producers and charities. That's why I approached Palmer's to see if they would be interested in brewing my beer recipes, and as a seaside restaurant, it felt right for the Hix Oyster & Fish House to support the RNLI."

Spokesman for the lifeboat crew, Richard Horobin, said: "It's great that Palmer's offered their customers the opportunity to give something back to the RNLI. As a charity that relies on public donations to continue to save lives at sea, we are delighted to receive support from businesses locally and across the UK."

Council objects to 'overlooking' steps

TOWN councillors have recommended refusal of a retrospective planning application to retain external steps at 12-15 Woodroffe Meadow in Lyme Regis.

At last week's Planning Committee meeting, a neighbouring Woodroffe Meadow resident complained that he was led to believe the steps would be built with bricks and have a screening wall. Instead, the steps were metal and wood fire escape-style with no screening wall, which he said overlooked other properties.

"The materials that the developer has used are totally inappropriate. We were amazed that no screening wall was put up to soften the impact and prevent overlooking," he said.

Councillors agreed the steps caused "significant overlooking" and were not in keeping with the area. Their recommendation will now be considered by West Dorset District Council.

Councillors also recommended refusal to build a garage and store at Fairfield Cottage on Charmouth Road, on the grounds that the ground stability report, carried out in 2001, was not recent enough.

LOCAL PLANNING DECISIONS By Francesca Evans

■ LYME Regis Town Council found no objections to the following planning applications, which will now be considered for a final decision by West Dorset District Council:

Build a conservatory, porch and cladding at Flat 9, Farnham House, Stile Lane;

Install solar PV panels to the south east and south west roofs at St Andrew's House on Uplyme Road;

Build a single-storey rear extension at 1 Colway Rose, Colway Lane;

Replace garage with chalet-style detached house with shared access of West Hill Road at The Vicarage, West Hill Road.

■ WEST Dorset District Council have approved the following Lyme Regis planning applications (two council comments are written in brackets):

Retain extensions to garage and proposed car port at Driftwood, Sidmouth Road (recommend approval);

Make alterations to windows including Juliet balconies, erect demountable awning and outdoor seating area at the Bay Hotel, Marine Parade (recommend approval);

Create terrace at Lewesdon, Silver Street (recommend approval);

Loft conversion including two dormer windows at 11 Monmouth Street (town council did not comment);

Demolish garage and lean-to conservatory, build two-storey extension, single-storey extension and garage (recommend approval);

New window at Little Place, Silver Street, which is a listed building (recommend approval);

Build conservatory, work room extension, balcony to existing dormer window, patio and make internal alterations (recommend refusal on grounds that balcony was out of keeping with area);

Two dormer windows at 10 George's Square (no objection);

Change of use from shop to shop and cafe at 10A Broad Street, formerly the Tulips Gallery (recommend refusal on the grounds that it would cause increased noise pollution);

Demolish garage and greenhouse, build new garage/workshop with storage area and solar panels (no objection);

Replace windows at 57 Church Street, which is a listed building (no objection).

■ WEST Dorset District Council has refused permission to make alterations to Benets, Mill Green, which is a listed building.

The council reported that although not shown in the plans, "the proposed removal of the internal partition, as indicated within the applicant's supporting design and access statement, which has been retrospectively carried out, and the resultant opening up of the living and kitchen area at ground floor level to form one open plan room is considered to harm the character and historic plan-form of the listed building to the detriment of the heritage asset".

Lyme Regis Town Council raised no objections to the plans.

Teaching in the community

■ ALISON Bowskill and Chris Andrew teach Clarondene residents about fossils

RESIDENTS from Clarondene care home in Lyme Regis enjoyed a fossil-themed activity session, as part of a collaborative project to get the town's museum more involved with the community.

The museum's marine biologist Chris Andrew gave a talk on fossils with plenty of examples to look at, and community art teacher from the Woodroffe School, Alison Bowskill, then ran a creative session making clay tiles imprinted with fossil patterns.

The session was part of a project to bring activities to areas of the community who cannot usually access the museum.

A second session will be held at the home next week, when residents will be taking a look at items found on the beach that have fallen from the old Victorian tip.

Poor attendance at committee meeting sparks complaints from town councillors

TOWN councillors have complained about constant poor attendance at the council's Planning Committee meetings.

At last week's committee meeting only five councillors attended meaning they only just made a quorum. Two councillors declared prejudicial interests in one of the agenda items, leaving the committee with too few members to discuss the item or make a decision.

Councillor Michaela Ellis complained that this happened "all the time".

Councillor Ann Bradbury asked why so many councillors signed up for the Planning Committee and then never attended meetings.

Councillor Owen Lovell said: "They all sign up and

All invited to join children's centre for summer activities

THE children's centre in Lyme Regis is inviting all to join in with its summer activities.

The holiday club meets once a week and focuses on a different theme with activities aimed at children aged 0 to 5 years old and their families. Older siblings are welcome.

The sessions will run at the Sure Start Children's Centre on King's Way between 10am and 1pm on Wednesdays for four weeks of the holidays.

Upcoming themes will include the sea, the city and the jungle.

At the sessions there will be creepy crawlies to touch and feel, water to splash in and some art and craft projects to keep the children busy.

Children will be able to play some jungle rhythms on the drums, learn how to dance and bake something tasty to eat.

Sessions are only £1, but children are asked to bring a picnic and wear clothes they can get messy in.

For more info please contact West Dorset Children's Centres on 01308 421714.

come to the first meeting so they can vote on a chairman and vice-chairman and they don't bother coming again."

Councillors are now looking at reducing the number of committee members so that only three are needed to make a quorum, instead of five.

Thorncombe school children help boost local shop's trade

■ SHOP LOCAL: School children pictured outside Thorn-

IN a bid to highlight the importance of keeping village shops open, children from Thorncombe Primary School have completed an exercise analysing their weekly family shopping list to see how much could be purchased in the village shop instead of supermarkets.

The exercise showed the children how much was available in their local shop but also provided valuable feedback as to what other items were in demand. The student with the most on their list that was available in Thorncombe Village Shop won a £10 voucher, with second place winning £6 and third winning £3.

The students also calculated how much a round trip to their usual shopping town cost to see how much money could be saved by not using the car. The travel costs ranged from £6.50 up to over £11, which was quite a shock for some.

The students demonstrated their savings through pictures now displayed in the village shop window.

Thorncombe Village Shop, which was bought by the local community and is now run by part-time staff and volunteers, includes a cafe, free wireless internet access, a deli counter and Post Office, meaning it is an important facility for local residents but is struggling during the current economic climate.

Volunteer Phil Gordon, who is trying to boost local trade, said: "The trouble is that we are just the wrong side of breaking even at the moment and we need to try to encourage all our local shoppers to spend a few more pounds a week than they currently are."

"If we can, through the children in the village, encourage a few more people to think village shop before car it could make all the difference. No one expects the typical family today to do their entire weekly shop in their village - that would be impossible - but a slight modification in habits is all we need."

"We are always keen to hear ideas from the community as to what they would buy or what services they would use."

Imaginative ideas to solve erosion problem

■ PROTECTING THE COAST: Students on Charmouth Beach discuss erosion solutions

FROM ski lifts to fibreglass steps, a host of imaginative solutions to the ongoing cliff erosion around St Gabriel's Steps in Charmouth were presented to the National Trust recently.

Engineering Doctorate students from the STREAM Industrial Doctorate Centre - a collaboration across the universities of Exeter, Cranfield, Newcastle, Sheffield and Imperial College - were challenged to come up with alternatives to the present costly and time-consuming erosion solution, in which the steps are relocated every couple of years.

Rob Rhodes, from the National Trust's West Dorset office, said: "There were suggestions on how to improve the safety aspect of the steps by giving them a lower gradient, as well as plans to strengthen the steps by making them modular, so that they could come apart easily whenever a landslide occurs and then be reassembled quickly."

"The groups were given advice from geological experts on cliff stability, as well as from a civil engineer on how big and heavy the steps should be, and how best to attach them to a moving structure."

Thorncombe youngsters raise money for day out

Profits from the event will go towards the cost of a family day out for youth club members, parents and friends.

The youth club holds monthly meetings for children aged eight and above. For more details, contact Valerie Widger on 01308 868903.

Losing faith in the planning system

■ AS a long-term, permanent resident of Pine Walk (as opposed to holiday home type) the question I hear the most these days from walker is "How did they get planning permission?"

The question is about a huge box being built in Pine Walk/Coram Avenue, Lyme Regis, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, incidentally. Pine Walk is the lane of nine different style houses leading to the coastal walk. A few years ago, a small house at the end of the road was demolished and a replacement box was built. It has mellowed with time and sits squat in the corner out of sight (folk still ask if it is a warehouse!).

The latest demolition of a large 1950s house and its replacement will, I doubt, never achieve that anonymity. Siting high on its plot, its three stories look proudly over everything and says: "Look at me and up yours!"

Now I expect when it is finished and landscaped the overall image will improve but it will not be shrinking or changing shape. It also now cements the precedent for more of the same on this once pine tree lined walk to the underciff.

Why people ask is, it so difficult to get permission to make even small alterations when it is possible to build a house out of context, size and any aesthetic consideration to its surroundings. So people come to their own conclusions and loose faith in planning and, ultimately, government itself.

So if you fancy a walk to the cliffs come see for yourself what WDDC approved, and beware when your neighbour puts their house up for sale - the boxes are coming and they are big!

Can we bin the word 'chair'?

■ WELL done to Derek Hallett and to your editorial policy to deprecate the politically correct use of the term "chair" replacing "chairman" (as reported in the View From Lyme Regis, July 13th, page 5).

The correct term for this position is chairman, not chairwoman, chairperson, or the aforementioned ridiculous chair (unless, of course, the person in question has a fetish for being sat on, then of course we should naturally respect their wish!).

In Old English, the suffix "man" is gender neutral - it had and retains the same meaning as person today, referring to all people equally. Consequently the "sexism" implied in the word "man" does not exist.

Accordingly, can we please consign the absurd chair to the recycle bin permanently?

Thanks from Uplyme Ladies

■ ON behalf of us all at Uplyme Ladies Group, can I say a very big thank you to everyone who supported and helped us in any way at our two charity stalls, which we have held at Uplyme Village Fete and again at the horticultural society's show.

We were given some lovely articles to sell, as well as generous donations and, of course, we had lots of lovely people who bought from us. Despite the wet, windy weather on both occasions, we took a wonderful £534, which we are sharing between our 18-year-old village resident, Sam Nunn's fund to help with his cancer treatment, which he has to have in Germany, and the Devon Air Ambulance.

Uplyme Ladies Group is a small, friendly group who meet every third Monday evening of the month, usually in Uplyme Village Hall. We have some very interesting talks and slide shows, go for walks and visit gardens. We also have a cup of tea or coffee and biscuits. Please ring Paula for more details on 01297 678351. Thank you all once again for your support at our charity stalls.

Theatre webcam 'just lovely'

■ I JUST wanted to say how much I appreciate the Marine Theatre webcam.

Lyme Regis is one of my favourite places and I love being able to have this little real-time window onto the sea and town. I'm up early trying to get a report finished but just took a few minutes out to watch the sunrise over the sea and the gulls flying high over the water - just lovely.

Thanks to whoever set up this particular real-time webcam.

Erika Kendall

Thanks for support at Holcombe hog roast

■ WE would like to thank our family and friends once again for there wonderful help and support in making our charity Hog Roast in Holcombe a great success.

Music was by the Blues Brothers Tribute Band and Fluxy's Disco. We raised an amazing £2,300 for the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

A big thank you to you all.

Former Woodroffe student runner-up in top book prize

AUTHOR Lorraine Jenkin, originally from Lyme Regis, has been named runner-up in the fiction section of the People's Book Prize.

Lorraine, a former Woodroffe School student and daughter of Keith and town councillor Lorna Jenkin, now lives in Wales with her family.

She was nominated for her latest release, "Cold Enough To Freeze Cows", alongside over 100 other authors.

Her book was listed as one of 36 finalists after winning the Winter 2010 quarterly section, but she just missed out on the top prize for fiction, which was taken by Sara Allerton with "Making Shore".

"Cold Enough to Freeze Cows", which has already been named the Welsh Independent Booksellers Book of the Month in August 2010, follows four main story-lines and is available on Amazon.

We couldn't squeeze another person in!

WHAT a busy week it has been - so busy that I haven't been able to take part in a specific summertime activity this week, but I've been to as many of the Lifeboat Week events as I could fit in.

I know that some people were sceptical about the Red Arrows flying in on the first day of Lifeboat Week - thinking there wouldn't be enough people in the town yet, but I'm not sure we could squeeze many more in. The perfect weather has left the beach packed every day - I just hope the sunshine stays until Regatta and Carnival Week (August 6th to 13th).

The Red Arrows display was a resounding success and is hoped to have raised a record-breaking collection for the RNLI.

I enjoyed the display from the Lister community room on the new Marine Parade shelters. The Lyme Regis branch of Cancer Research UK, of which I am a member, was one of the first local organisations to book out the room and we hosted a champagne and strawberries and cream reception in scorching sunshine, raising £255, of which we donated £50 to the RNLI.

I put my baking skills to the test to make special Red Arrows cupcakes for the occasion - they only took me four and half hours to ice!

Whilst my family sipped champagne all afternoon I was working hard, covering events in my new patch, Colyton. When I came back to Lyme, dad was busy comparing celebrity chef Mark Hix's cooking demonstration on the Slipway, which raised a further £200 for Lifeboat Week.

Mark's crab dishes were delicious and were washed down with special cocktails (a rather boozy afternoon for the Evans family!) at the Hix Oyster and Fish House in Lister Gardens afterwards. If you haven't done so already, sipping a Hix Fix on the restaurant's terrace on a sunny day is an absolute summertime must!

Apologies for missing out the illuminated boats when listing the top Lifeboat Week events in last week's column.

This spectacular event was last held in 2007 and returns this Sunday with what is set to be the biggest display yet.

The lit-up boats will tour the harbour at 9pm - a very attractive event and an excellent way to end the week.

Unfortunately I will miss the last weekend of Lifeboat Week, including my favourite event, the bathtub race on Saturday, as I'm going to the Camp Bestival music festival at Lulworth Castle.

I hope you all enjoy the rest of the week!

■ RED ARROWS APPETISERS: Pictured with my Red Arrows cupcakes on Saturday afternoon

THIS dramatic scene has been catching the eyes of many over the past few days, but don't be too alarmed - if a Spitfire had really crashed into the Marine Theatre, I'm sure you would have already read about it on the front page!

This impressive model WWII plane is a publicity stunt, attracting attention for the Shanty Theatre Company's production of "The Mysterious and Fantastical Wartime Tale of the Salty Socks of Dunkirk", which opens today (Wednesday) and will run at the Marine Theatre until September 4th.

My dad and I spotted the Spitfire on one of our early morning walks along the seafront and it gave us quite a shock - I think dad was hoping for a top story!

■ WELL DONE to Barry Trott and his team of town council gardeners for doing such an outstanding job in Langmoor and Lister gardens this year.

The floral display marking the 150th anniversary of lifeboats in the town is particularly eye-catching. I walked to the end of the Cobb earlier this week and thought it stood out brilliantly, even from so far away.

The baskets in Broad Street are also looking great and staff at the Royal Lion have obviously put a lot of effort into their attractive floral displays.

Lyme Regis is certainly blooming for summer!

Raffle to raise money for boat builder Gail

A BOATBUILDING course worth over £3,000 is up for grabs as first prize of Lyme Regis Boat Building Academy's grand raffle.

The raffle is raising money for a new workshop for local boat builder, Gail McGarva, who has built Lyme's two gigs and recently launched her lerret, to enable her to continue practicing traditional boat building skills in the town.

First prize is an eight-week woodworking skills course, worth £3,350. Suitable for beginners, the course is practical, intensive and offers students the opportunity to design and build their own personal project. Second prize will be a five-day wooden boat building or restoration course, worth £575, and third prize will be a day with Gail in her workshop.

Principal of the Boat Building Academy, Yvonne Green, said: "Gail McGarva, a graduate of the academy, needs a permanent workshop. It is difficult for traditional wooden boat builders to find workshop space by the sea – wooden boat builders, on the whole, do the job for love rather than money and land by the water is expensive and more likely to be used for housing or commercial development.

"Our graduates are starting to form a community of boat builders in Lyme Regis and the surrounding area and we are very keen that Gail, who has worked so closely with the people of Dorset on the gig and the lerret, and who is widely respected for both her work and her way of involving people, has a suitable space in which to build her boats in Dorset."

Raffle tickets cost just £1 and are available on the academy's website www.boatbuildingacademy.com, by emailing office@boatbuildingacademy.com, by writing to Boat Building Academy, Lyme Regis Marine Centre, Monmouth Beach, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3JN, or by visiting the academy on Monmouth Beach.

Toilets closed after vandalism

THE disabled toilet at Monmouth Beach in Lyme Regis has been closed after being vandalised last weekend.

The West Dorset District Council-owned toilet, in Mounmouth Beach Car Park near the Bowling Club, is now closed while repairs are being made.

The district council's director of resources, Jason Vaughan, said: "There has been various acts of vandalism carried out. The toilet roll holder needs to be replaced, a hand rail needs to be fixed along with wall tiles, a lever handle to a cistern is loose although working, a hand cleaning and drying machine has had the door ripped off, and the thermostat and wires pulled out.

"We are sorry for any inconvenience this has caused but the toilet will be re-open again as soon as possible."

"We would encourage anyone with information about the vandalism to contact the police."

PC Richard Winward said he was concerned the vandalism would result in the toilet having to be closed earlier in the evening.

Door handles of the public toilets at the Anning Road Playing Field, owned by Lyme Regis Town Council, were also recently damaged.

■ CELEBRATING SUCCESS: Lyme Regis Gig Club's Men's Veterans team were among members who reached top spots at Caradon Regatta

Gig club stars at regatta

MEMBERS of Lyme Regis Gig Club starred at Caradon Gig Club's Regatta, held on the River Tamar at Saltash last weekend, where many of them reached the semi finals and finals of their categories.

With over 60 mixed and veteran crews competing on the Saturday, the Lyme A Team of Michelle Prosser, Lis Harden, Zac Hunt, Ben Short, Henry Barlow, Deb Hunt and cox Rex Ireland, made it through to the semi-finals but just missed out on a place in the finals.

After a tough first race, the B Team of Kerry Maguire, Dawn Lathey, Payl Duer, Neil Spurdle, Rex Ireland, Karen Tomkins and cox Jackie Ireland rowed superbly into the Plate Final.

On the Sunday, over 110 veteran crews competed in a full day of racing. Outstanding performances from Lyme's Ladies Super Veterans (Kerry Maguire, Jackie Ireland, Bev Bailey, Bridget Pocock, Diana Dixon and Alison Robinson), Mixed Veterans (Michelle Prosser, Dawn Lathey, Paul Dyer, Ben Short, Cam Short, Karen Tomkins and cox Henry Barlow), and the Men's Veterans (Andy Schmidt, Henry Barlow, Paul Dyer, Ben Short, Cam Short and Neil Spurdle) put them all through to their finals.

Each final featured six teams, and the Lyme Regis crews more than held their own against the more experienced Cornish sides.

Lyme Regis Gig Club is holding its own regatta on Sunday, August 14th.

PLEASE MAKE ROSS MOORE AND CLAIRE PERRY DREAMS COME TRUE

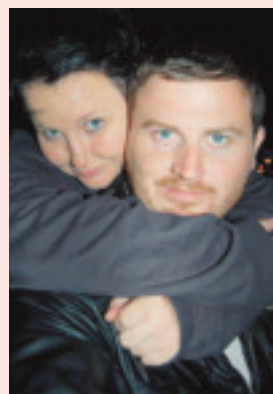

ROSS Moore and Claire Perry entered the competition to win a dream wedding worth over £12,000 at Hornsbury Mill. They were due to get married last year but due to the business development they decided it was best to put their plans on hold and put all their money and energy in the rapidly growing business. It would be a dream come true for them to win the prize, getting married means everything to them.

Claire had their son Jack and she then followed her dream and baked cakes for a living. She had a passion for baking from a very young age, you could say she became a 'mumpreneur'. She got so busy Ross gave up work last year and now is part of the business full time with Claire. Moore Than Cupcakes started two years ago on Bridport market selling our delicious cakes, cupcakes and scones and has since gone from strength to strength. They were approached by several tourist attractions, restaurants and holiday parks asking if they could supply them, they gave the market up and decided to build the wholesale and catering side of the business.

Over the past year they have helped Beaminster dog show by donating cakes and cupcakes to them, sold cakes to raise funds for the Air Ambulance, donated raffle prizes to Bridport's Got Talent and also donated the buffet for Bridport Carnival this year.

Please vote for them, voting is each week in the Western Gazette with double voting this week, (two voting slips in each paper) people can vote as many times as they like. Ref: Ross Moore & Claire Perry Entry number 1032.

New pre-school set to open

A NEW pre-school, run by St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis, is set to open in September.

The former Lyme Regis Pre-School was closed earlier this year due to an unsatisfactory Ofsted report.

The new pre-school will be open at the Sure Start Children's Centre on King's Way for phased entry for groups of children on Thursday, September 8th and Friday, September 9th, with all children attending the following Monday.

Sheila Stewart has been appointed the pre-school leader with Jessica Hawkins as deputy and Georgie Williams as assistant.

The new staff were introduced to 15 parents at a meeting held earlier this month, followed by 17 applications for children to attend. The pre-school will offer a maximum of 24 places each day for three and four year olds, and parents who have applied for their children to attend will receive confirmation in the post.

Headteacher of St Michael's, Annabelle Grose, said: "We are delighted with the highly qualified and experienced staff who are already working together to ensure everything is in place. The team will be joining the whole school staff for staff development on Monday and Tuesday, September 5th and 6th and are very excited about the new venture."

Any parents are interested in registering their child should ask for forms from the school office or phone on 01297 442623. It can also be arranged for parents to meet Miss Grose and be given a tour of the school's facilities.

All children attending the primary school or preschool are able to join St Michael's Breakfast Club, which is run from the school hall every morning at 8am, costing £3 per day which includes toast or cereal with a choice of croissants, bacon or scrambled egg.

Sun shines for Charmouth's first bowls day

THE sun shone and the barbecue sizzled at Charmouth Bowls Club's recent mid-season Bowls Day.

Over 30 members and guests came together at the Barr's Lane clubhouse for a lunchtime barbecue, which was followed by an afternoon of bowls activities. By lunchtime the clouds had cleared and everyone was in party spirits.

Club captain Bob Just led everyone onto the bowling rinks where an attempt was made to introduce the guests to the rudiments of bowling. The competition that ensued provided great entertainment and, despite some dramatic scoring variations, Mr Just was able to name a winner and runner-up for the afternoon.

The day finished with a short prize giving and raffle, and everyone agreed that the club's first barbecue and bowls day had been a huge success.

New members are always welcome at Charmouth Bowls Club. For further details visit the website www.charmouthbowlsclub.co.uk

New qualification for Lyme councillor

WEST Dorset District and Lyme Regis Town councillor Daryl Turner has gained his BTEC Level 4 qualification in local government.

Councillor Turner, who is vice-chairman of the Efficiency Scrutiny Committee at West Dorset and deputy mayor in Lyme Regis, had to attend seven all-day tutorials and pass four modules – in leading communities, leading policy, leading service improvements and local governance and personal capacity – to gain the qualification.

He said: "The course is designed to inspire and improve, allowing individual strengths and weaknesses to be identified and worked on; it is an excellent starting block for continuing development".

Councillor Turner collected his award at Cadbury House, near Bristol, at a ceremony organised by South West councils with chairman of the district council, Gillian Summers, who has also just gained the qualification, and council champion for member development, Mary Penfold.

Creator of Lyme's town map talks ArtsFest

IN a series of interviews leading up to ArtsFest 2011 (September 17th to 25th), Anthea Simmons uncovers some of the fascinating back stories behind a selection of artists participating in the festival.

KEITH ROBINSON may not have lived in Lyme for long but he has already made an impact. Look out for his wonderfully graphic map of the town on the wall at Cobb Gate, in the Tourist Information Centre and in the new-look seafront shelters.

■ WHAT is the history of your involvement in the Arts?
I studied graphic design and illustration at Berkshire College of Art and then at Middlesex. During my time at college, I was awarded a Thames Television Design Bursary to travel to the slums of Brazil, where I ran printing workshops, enabling community workers to produce their own, relevant health information posters.

At college, I was interested in animation, graphics and illustration, but found it hard to settle on just one. In 1992, a tutor introduced me to a company in Brighton, UCM Ltd, who were in multimedia. I had no idea what multimedia was but I went to see them and I was blown away. Here was a way of combining everything I was interested in and adding in something brand new – interactivity.

Today, we take CGI (computer generated imagery) and programs like Photoshop for granted. At the time, I didn't even know how to switch on a computer, but I decided I'd better learn fast and got myself a job in the company.

In 1996, I joined the BBC Multimedia Centre. During my time there, we developed BBC online as well as interactive TV and CD-ROMs. I worked on some fascinating projects, travelling to Northern Ireland for an interactive history of The Troubles, and to Germany to develop a CD-ROM on Bach.

In 1997, I founded a cross-media design agency, Code-name. We worked with the BBC, Channel 4 and Granada Media to produce a wide variety of work including short films, TV graphics and websites. Then the .com bubble burst and we got caught in the ripple.

In 2001, I went freelance, producing animation and motion graphics for all the UK's major broadcasters. The last two years, however, has seen a shift in my focus. I was given the chance to illustrate a set of stamps for Guernsey Post to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. The Sherlock Holmes story I wrote integrates the stamps in a mystery with clues in the pictures. Its success led to a commission for a series of themed fantasy adventure stories for children, 'Penny the Postie', which includes commemorative sets of stamps. The second book is due out in July.

■ SO you have now evolved into a writer and illustrator of children's books, and a map-maker?

Amongst other things, yes. I still do television work and illustration commissions for books and magazines. As to the map, we had just moved down here when I heard about the competition and I thought doing it would be a great way to get to know the town. It took me nine months of wandering about, taking photographs, trying to get a 3D aerial projection from information garnered on foot – very difficult.

■ WHAT your key influences and sources of inspiration as an illustrator?

My greatest influence was my old art college tutor, George Glenny. He taught me a way of seeing and thinking which opened up the whole world of visual communication. Artistic influences are Arthur Rackham, for his line work; Herge, for his draughtsmanship and clarity; and Ernest Shepard and Helen Oxenbury, whose acute perception of body language gives their characters such life.

■ IF you had to be locked in a museum or gallery for a weekend, where would you choose?

It would have to be the British Museum. I've had a love affair with it ever since researching a college project there, and I've been going back ever since. It's such an incredible, eclectic collection.

■ HOW did you get involved in ArtsFest?

Jennie Pearson introduced me. I thought it would be a great way to get to know people and to get involved in Lyme's lively art scene. I'll be exhibiting at the Baptist Church Hall and taking part in the Art Trail, with work in the museum, the Tourist Information Centre and at the Alcove.

■ WHAT are you looking forward to in this year's ArtsFest?

I'm curious to find out about Christine Allison's fish rubbing. Her sunrise sketching sounds great too, although I'm not very good at early starts! The typography talk on September 22nd sounds fascinating, and I'm really looking forward to being the Literary Evening at By The Bay on September 20th.

Poetry competition for young writers

IN a drive to encourage more young people to take part in this year's ArtsFest, to be held from September 17th to 25th, the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis are supporting a series of poetry workshops and a poetry competition.

The competition will be free to enter and open to anyone under the age of 18 and, as it is the celebratory year of Maritime Lyme, poems and sea shanties should be inspired by the Lyme Regis coast – covering anything from pirates and smugglers to mermaids and dolphins or just the sea itself.

Pirate Captain Artful has visited St Michael's Primary School in Lyme, Mrs Ethelston's Primary School in Uplyme and Charmouth Primary School to explain the competition and to explore the sea shanty genre. She has already received some excellent entries from the children and is looking forward to many more.

Winners and runners up will be invited to read their poems at the WordFest event in the Marine Theatre on Friday, September 23rd at 7pm.

The event will also feature Lyme Regis Gig Club members singing shanties, including ones written by the children and young people.

For more information on how to enter, please visit the website www.lymeregisartsfest.com or phone Captain Artful (aka Anthea Simmons) on 01297 551142.

DORSET'S own award winning Ace Energy are the leading suppliers of solar power. Recently they have installed solar at a number of homes within Dorset. With the average electricity bill being around £600 yearly, installing solar on your roof can reduce that bill by up to 50% and provide home owners and landlords with a healthy profit. This is due to the Feed-In Tariff scheme which pays premium rates for power generated from solar power - Dorset households on the scheme are now earning over £850 every year. The tax free, inflation-proof payouts are designed to protect the UK from ever-rising energy prices and help lower carbon emissions. You may have noticed an increase in the amount of roofs proudly showing off their solar panels recently and according to Alan Seviour, Ace Energy's MD, solar has never been more popular.

With interest rates at an all time low investment savvy householders are looking for alternative ways to earn money and solar power offers just that.

Charmouth Fayre

August 7th 2011

Plenty to do for all the family at village's event of the year

Welcome to the 20th Charmouth Village Fayre

Welcome to the 20th Charmouth Fayre, we hope you will have fun and most of all enjoy the delights of an "old village fayre". We try every year to bring in some new stalls and events and this year is no exception.

Our main events this year are The Blackdown Hills Steel Band and "Jules" (who is a stilt walker, fire eater and has several other tricks up his sleeve!!). Rumour has it that we might have a display from a local "Morris men" team. On top of these new events we will have all our usual stalls and games making a very busy afternoon for all our volunteer helpers. When you need a rest pop down to the tea pavilion for homemade cakes etc and whilst resting you can listen to the Ottery St Mary Silver Band.

If this is not enough please remember from 7pm we will be running a barbeque and bar with live music from "Papa Le Gal" until 10.30pm when the finale will be a spectacular firework display.

2010 was a brilliant year for the fayre, we had an extremely successful end of May Bank holiday evening "Party in the Park" and another super fayre day. This enabled us to buy some new equipment and give just over £3,500 to local organisations. Thank you so much for all your continued support.

If you are a visitor, we hope you enjoy your stay in the village and especially your visit to our fayre.

Any comments, good or bad, please drop me a line to The Court, The Street, Charmouth, Dorset, DT6 6PE or email me at peter@marshall-noel.co.uk.

Peter Noel, Chairman 2011

Mini Mania!

The mini is the car that, more than any other, has changed the face of motoring forever. One cannot imagine a cityscape without a mini being present and it is impossible to look at a small car today without seeing very real evidence of the influence the mini has had on it. We hope to have more than a dozen minis from various car clubs on the field, so step back in time and immerse yourself in nostalgia.

Uplyme Morris

We are a recently revived side, dancing only since 2007 and still 'learning the ropes'. We are always on the lookout for new members - dancers and musicians - and as a small and relatively inexperienced side with a wide range of ages, offer a friendly and gentle introduction to the weird and wonderful world of Morris.

The Puppetree Company

With over thirty years experience of entertaining audiences, we employ all forms of puppetry. We have the unique ability to produce a show for any themed event and are fully equipped for stage, cabaret, street performances and festival, with various routines to suit your requirements. Packed full of fun for everyone, Punch & Judy is a celebration of new and traditional routines with all the favourite characters, evoking memories of sunny summer days!

Papa Le Gal

This colourful, well dressed 5-piece will always deliver an evening of stomping tunes, with positive philosophy reflected in their lyrics. Swinging between afrobeat, latin and funk (plus anything else that takes their fancy) the papa crew never fail to get a crowd moving, representing the sounds of summer and promoting an eccentric festival atmosphere.

Programme of Events

- 1.30 - Fancy Dress Parade (entrants to assemble at The Court, The Street, opposite The Royal Oak)
- 1.45 - Fancy Dress Parade to the fayre field at Barrs Lane
- 2.00 - Fayre to be opened. Fancy dress competition - Main Arena.
- 2.15 - Lyme Regis Majorettes - Main Arena
- 2.45 - Red Hot Steel - Main Arena
- 3.30 Jules - Stilt Walker and Fire Eater - Main Arena

- 4.00 - Red Hot Steel - Main Arena
- 4.45 - Tug 'o' War - Main Arena

You can also try your hand at one of the traditional stalls and games.

Come to the Party in the Park!

With continuing low interest rates, many people who rely on their savings and investments to top up their income have continued to be disappointed with returns. LOCAL ALBUM LAUNCH FOR
BLUES STARS THE PRODUCERS

DAVE Saunders and Harry Skinner formed The Producers in 1990. They went on to be one of the most popular blues outfit in the country winning the 'Blues Band of the Year' award four times and releasing seven CD albums, one of which 'Ain't No Love in the World' was nominated for the 'Best Blues Album' award.

The Producers have regular sell out dates at blues clubs worldwide as well as invitations to headline major festivals including Colne, Burnley, Stanley Blues, Dublin Templebar, Cork, Farnham and the North Wales Blues Festival.

Recent festival highlights include opening for Robert Cray playing at Tauranga Blues + Jazz Festival Auckland, New Zealand and being joined onstage by headliner Ray Charles' brass section and his 'Raelets' dancers at the Cognac Blues Festival, France.

After performing at the Alexis Korner Memorial Concert at Buxton Opera House the Producers were spotted by Peter Greens management and asked to support the Fleetwood Mac guitar legend on his first national tour for 25 years.

The Producers will be performing with original frontmen Harry Skinner and bass player Dave Saunders and will be joined by Ray Drury on organ/piano and Biff Smith on Drums and percussion to complete the lineup.

The Producers long awaited new album 'London Blues' will be the first album from the band since 'Live Blues' was released in 2000, a gap of 11 years, consequently it is creating lots of excitement within the blues community and the music industry in general.

The album features guests Paul Beavis (Go West, Low Riders) Andy Fairweather Low (Eric Clapton, Roger Waters) Dorset's own Ben Waters and five-times blues award winner Paul Lamb on piano and harmonica respectively with all the material being self penned originals.

The album launch concert will be performed at The Electric Palace, Bridport on Thursday, August 18th. Tickets are on sale now for £12.50 from Bridport Tourist Info Centre on 01308 424901.

'Highly original' book of poems

AFTER a lifetime spent on the farm and in engineering, countryman John Hounsell retired to Lyme Regis and discovered a new talent - writing poetry.

John has committed some of his favourite verses to a charming book entitled "Memories, Sweet Dreams and Some Nightmares", published earlier this year.

In the preface, former Lyme journalist and town councillor David Cozens, MBE, describes the book of poems as "an evocative insight into his world, touched by the wonderment of the many special memories and experiences which have had an everlasting effect on a varied life".

Mr Cozens went to describe Mr Hounsell's style as "highly original but complicated", adding: "He has always been creative through life's journey and his work reflects the tenor of a caring man keen to share joy, injustice and moments of pathos with readers."

There's few subjects that go untouched in this book; some personal, observations on family and life and world affairs.

Mr Hounsell, born on a farm in Long Bredy near Bridport, moved to Somerset to bring up two sons with wife Anne before retiring to Lyme Regis.

He published the book himself and if you would like a copy call the View From offices on 01297 446057.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

"If it ain't a pleasure, it ain't a poem."
William Carlos Williams

IN 2006, when this column was named 'Poetry for Pleasure', I was unaware of the above quotation by this famous American writer. It was brought to my attention by Gentleman Jim Morgan of Lyme Regis. Jim is one of four local poets who have collaborated in producing a poetry collection entitled "Dancing with Stones" and published by Four-Square Press. Before he came to live in Lyme, Jim was a child of London as this poem of his explains.

FAREWELL TO LONDON

*Farewell, you ancient city,
Farewell, familiar sights!*

*Your parks, your squares, your bookshops,
Those dear and dead delights.*

*For a while I'll miss you,
For a while or so
Memories will haunt me
With scenes of long ago.*

*In dreams again I'll wander
On Highgate's wooded slope
As in youth I wandered
When life was rich in hope.*

*Or stroll on the Embankment Historic Thames beside
And see its muddy waters
Mysteriously glide.*

*And on autumn evenings
As the dusk drifts down
I'll think of the excitements
Of nights in London town*

*And sigh as I remember
Romantic rendezvous
Among the leafy shadows

*O Lyme! Although I love you
I cannot quite forget
I am a child of London and Love her old stones yet.*

OF course, the London Jim knew in his youth is no longer there. Advancing technology, mass immigration and misguided planners have changed the world he knew.

LAMENT FOR LITTLE STREETS

*No more clip-clopping horses pulling tradesmen's vans
Or morning cries of 'Milkol!' from milkmen clattering cans.
No roving organ grinders rattling out their tunes
Through long, sleepy, London summer afternoons*

No lucifer lamplighter cycling on his beat Lighting up the gas lamps down the dusky street

The little streets of London have lost the corner

shops

Where for a few brown pennies we could buy lollipops

*Or liquorice strips or sherbet or fizzy lemonade
And on their sites have risen the pedestrian arc-cade*

*A supermarket monster or a gaudy shopping mall
An inner city ghetto, hate crawled on every wall.*

O the little streets of London though they were not the Ritz

Stood as proud as lions through the terrors of the Blitz

*And it wasn't Hitler's bombers or the devilish V2
But the money men and planners who were the death of you.*

*So I lament your passing in this simple verse:
We sought to make things better
But only made them worse*

THE other 'pensioned-off poets' featured in 'Dancing with Stones' are Margery Forester, Brenda Leeming and Audrey Stenton. All are now living in the West Country.

New Art Exhibition at the Salt House in West Bay

TEN members of the Morcombelake Art Group will have their work featured in an exciting new exhibition in West Bay in August at the historic Salthouse building.

The exhibitors, namely Joanne Brown, Sue Calder, Jan Calow, Annie Clough, Ronnie Creswell, Edna Dorrington, Kay Hicks, Judy Hogarth, Barbara Green, and Sue Warren, work with a wide variety of subject matter, styles and media from prints, textiles, mixed media, watercolours, acrylic and oil paintings, to digital mixed media - so the show promises plenty of interest to all those who enjoy looking at art and more than likely to those who don't as well.

The exhibition will be open on the afternoon of Friday, July 29th and run over the weekend and on Monday, August 1st from 11am to 5pm. Original work, reproductions and artists' greetings cards will all be available off the wall and from the browsers.

Following this exhibition the popular Whitchurch and Morcombelake WI Arts and Crafts exhibition starts at the Village Hall, Whitchurch Canonichorum on Tuesday, August 2nd until Sunday 7th, with a wide range of handicraft and produce, plus art on the wall.

Then, at the end of the month - the Morcombelake Art Group will return to Morcombelake this year for their Annual Art Exhibition over the Bank Holiday weekend from August 27th to 29th, in the local James Hargreaves Community Hall where the latest work by the full group of members will be represented.

TWELFTH NIGHT ON THE MILLENNIUM GREEN

FOLLOWING a shipwreck, Viola is washed ashore in Illyria, a country where everything is illogical, delirious, and completely topsy turvy. To protect herself she adopts a male disguise. But what use are disguises when Lady Olivia falls madly in love with her, and she herself falls in love with Count Orsino? It could all end in tears - even if most of them are of laughter.

Illyria presents Shakespeare's Twelfth Night - an evening of romance, music and sheer and utter joy, performed on a stage inspired by those of the mediaeval touring troupes.

Illyria has won 4 international awards for its open air productions of Shakespeare. As the company celebrates its 20th year it returns to one of the greatest of all English comedies - at the Millennium Green in Bridport!

Programme Manager Margie Barbour said "This is Shakespeare's most successful comedy, the famous scene with Malvolio when he finds the letter is particularly suited to the idyllic open air venue; Millennium Green".

The show takes place on Tuesday, August 2nd from 7.30pm.

Tickets are available at Bridport Arts Centre Box Office for £12, £11 for members, £8 concessions, or £30 family.

Stunt displays added to Great Dorset Steam Fair line up

ORGANISERS are preparing for what is forecast to be a busy year for the Great Dorset Steam Fair 2011, which takes place from Wednesday, August 31st to Sunday, September 4th in Tarrant Hinton, Dorset.

The new attractions for 2011 predicted to bring in more visitors are the brand new stunt displays, which will be in Arena 2 situated in the centre of the site near the Rural Craft Marquees.

The new stunt displays include demonstrations by The White Helmets, part of the Army and in particular the Royal Corps of Signals. This will be the first time The White Helmets, a mixture of unique feats of balance, skill and coordination and high impact high speed cross over rides, will feature at the Steam Fair. The team was formed in 1927 making it the oldest motorcycle display team, featuring popular trademark acts such as the fire jump, car jump and reverse rides.

The International Big Pete Monster Truck Display Team, which features racing, car crushing and a tug of war where a car is pulled in two, is also a new stunt display for this year. The UK's number one Monster Truck team provides a unique approach to monster truck displays and is expected to be hugely popular. The team's spectacular and exciting shows have captivated crowds at many high profile events across the UK and Europe for over 30 years.

This will be the 43rd year of the event run by Managing Director Martin Oliver, son of founder Michael Oliver. Martin says: "We have been gearing up in all areas of the show this year to offer even more for visiting families, and we have made significant improvements in the way of live music performances. There has been a huge amount of interest in the new stunt displays already and ticket sales are up compared to this time last year. The busiest time for ticket sales is yet to come, so we are in the process of preparing for what we hope will be a record number of visitors."

The Great Dorset Steam Fair is a typically British event offering a unique blend of nostalgia and entertainment. The World's largest heritage and cultural event showcasing our national industrial, agricultural and leisure history. Come and soak up the special festival atmosphere whether as a day visitor or taking in the full five days by camping on site. There is no other event like it anywhere in the world which is why over 200,000 visitors attend each year from both the UK and abroad. Visit this colourful show once and you'll be hooked for life.

Special Screening of Flying Monsters

Sir David Attenborough will also give live Q&A by satellite following screening

AS part of the Electric Palace's link with the National Theatre Live, a special screening of 'Flying Monsters' followed by a live satellite Q&A with Sir David Attenborough will take place at the Electric Palace at 4pm this Saturday (July 30th). Tickets are on sale from Bridport Tourist Information Centre for £6 adults and £3 children under 16s.

'Flying Monsters' is a groundbreaking film that uses cutting-edge technology and CGI to bring the story of giant flying monsters and their prehistoric world to life. Audiences of all ages will be in awe as they enter the world and experience, as never before, REAL Flying Monsters!

Our beautiful stretch of coastline has an unparalleled geology, an impressive fossil heritage and World Heritage Site Status which earned its title of the 'Jurassic Coast' and as such, much of Attenborough's BAFTA winning 'Flying Monsters' was filmed locally at Lyme Regis as well as from glider planes from North Hill Airfield.

The greatest fossil hunter ever known was a woman from Lyme Regis. Mary Anning's discoveries were some of the most significant geological finds of all time. They provided evidence that was central to the development of new ideas about the history of the Earth.

220 million years ago dinosaurs were beginning their domination of Earth. But another group of reptiles was about to make an extraordinary leap: pterosaurs were taking control of the skies. The story of how and why these mysterious creatures took to the air is more fantastical than any fiction.

In 'Flying Monsters', Sir David Attenborough the world's leading naturalist, sets out to uncover the truth about the enigmatic pterosaurs, whose wingspans of up to 40 feet were equal to that of a modern day jet plane.

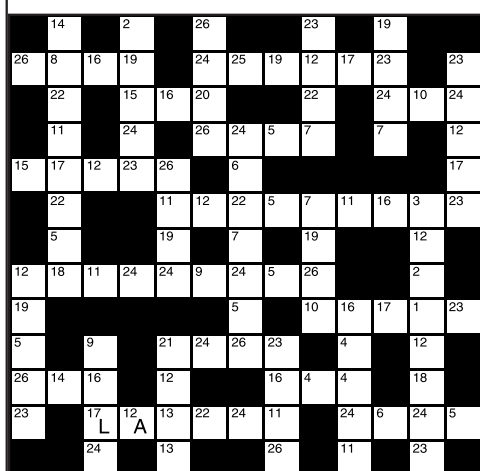

This promises to be a terrific event and fantastic for children too! It is advised to buy tickets early to avoid disappointment.

Panto Society prove variety isn't dead!

THOSE who believe that variety is dead were clearly not in the vicinity of the Marine Theatre last week when Lyme Regis Pantomime Society staged their annual summer show.

Billed as "Showtime – an evening of musical variety", the society's "Comedy Tonight" production demonstrated just how much talent of all ages they are able to summon every year to continue the tradition of summer entertainment at the theatre by the sea.

By Philip Evans

Produced by society stalwart Shirley Colley and her highly talented daughter Tina Paveley, "Comedy Tonight" had all the ingredients of an old-time variety show – song and dance routines galore and loads of laughs.

The show was beautifully dressed, as to be expected of any production staged by Shirley Colley, and the dance routines, choreographed by Kathy Smith, Tina Paveley and Louise Powell set the pace from the time Tina Paveley opened the show with two classic Victoria Woods at the piano – "It Would Never Have Worked" and "Let's Do It" through to the closing number, "There's no business like show business" (what else?).

Few would attempt the tongue-twisting lyrics which have made Victoria Woods one of the most accomplished female entertainers of our times, but Tina Paveley is a supremely confident performer and this performance demonstrated the extent of her versatility on the stage.

There were a few other notable performances which had the audience in raptures – not least the two contributions from the talented Luke Street whose ambition is to appear on the West End stage. If his renditions of "I Hear You Sing" from Phantom of The Opera and "Stars" from Les Miserables are any indication, sparkling stage career beckons.

For me another high point of the show was the duet between Tina Paveley and Brian Rattenbury, one of my favourite local stage performers, whose performance of "A Little Priest" from Sweeney Todd was seriously impressive.

Seasoned all-rounder, Nicky Sweetland, also impressed with her rifle-toting "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun" from the musical Annie Get Your Gun.

Another crowd pleaser was the "Cell Block Tango" from the West End musical Chicago featuring Amy Street, Dawn Street, Gemma Hattan, Nicky Sweetland, Tina Paveley and Amanda Rattenbury.

Well done also to all those youngsters who danced and sang their way through multiple routines and Jake Causley deserved the rapturous applause he received for his two saxophone solos.

All in all, an enjoyable evening.

The full cast: Sarah Causley, Shirley Colley, Val Hawkins, Frances Hall, Gemma Hattan, Georgie Harwood, Tina Paveley, Louise Powell, Amanda Rattenbury, Bev Rattenbury, Kathy Smith, Hasina Baker, Amy Street, Dawn Street, Alisha Studley, Nicky Sweetland, Kate Wootton, Karisma Girls, Jake Causley, Rob Cross, Brian Rattenbury and Phil Street. The evening was compered by Roy Wootton in his usual amusing manner.

Behind the scenes: producers – Shirley Colley and Tina Paveley; choreographers – Kathy Smith, Tina Paveley, Amy Street; pianist – Penny Bartholomew; costumes – Shirley Colley; sound – Mike and Winnie Donno; lighting – Ant Hutchings; front of house – Jill Pack and friends; Bookings – Primary Colours.

At the end of the two shows a collection was made in aid of Cancer Research UK

Sublime Folk returns to the Palace

SUBLIME Folk returns to the Electric Palace on Friday, August 5th.

Performing on the night will be a collective of three superb acts which compliment each other perfectly. Revel in the unstoppable energy and showmanship of Bridport's own banjo & fiddle whiz Stompin' Dave. Mellow out to the beautiful harmony of award winning acoustic duo Tinderbox. Delight in the remarkable musicianship, and effortless stagecraft of Maurice Dickson from Northern Ireland. Topped off with the sublime Irish pipes of Catherine Ashcroft.

Gabby Rabbitts of Bridport's Electric Palace described Sublime Folk's debut event as "A triumph". Organiser and promoter Stompin' Dave states "Sublime Folk was originally envisaged as a one off event last summer at The Electric Palace. It was such a successful and enjoyable evening that we decided to put together a short tour in the spring, which harvested a good bunch of winning evenings across the south including a cracking night at The Dorchester Corn Exchange. Its great to be back at The Electric Palace which has been a great springboard for Sublime Folk."

Headlining the event is Belfast born Maurice Dickson, a professional musician for over thirty years who has built an enthusiastic audience for his powerful brand of contemporary folk, Irish folk & blues. This journeyman has toured across the UK, Ireland, Europe and America. He has performed at many of the major folk festivals including Sidmouth, Edinburgh, Shetland, Belfast, Limerick, Aaron, and Cork. Maurice a terrific songwriter performs his own beautifully crafted original songs in tandem with traditional instrumental music showcasing the wonderful uilleann pipe player Catherine Ashcroft.

Tinderbox an original acoustic folk duo feature the honey-like vocals of Monique Houraghan, and the intricate finger style guitar of Dan Tucker. Bournemouth based Tinderbox were recently awarded Best European Revelation Group 2010 and have performed across the UK, and the USA. Recently they gave a headline appearance at Dublin's famous Whelan's and embarked on a Cafe Nero sponsored tour of the UK.

Stompin' Dave the driving force behind Sublime Folk performs American roots music on vocals, guitar, five-string banjo, fiddle, harmonica, and flatfoot dancing. Dorset based Dave has been very active the past ten years working across the South of the UK and beyond, giving well over a hundred and fifty performances each year. He has performed at Glastonbury Festival, The Great Dorset Steam Fair and the Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival to name but a few. Dave toured Ireland this spring and was recently described as "One of the world's greatest performers" by Maverick Magazine. Dave has already promoted two very successful events at the Electric Palace this year including the Winter Blues and Good Ol' Bluegrass concerts both of which had over one hundred and seventy people in attendance.

The performance starts at 8pm with doors opening at 7pm. For tickets please call or visit Bridport Music (01308) 425707 or Bridport TIC (01308) 424901 For online ticket sales visit the website www.sublimefolk.com.

Last three luxury family homes available on exclusive hillside development

JUST a year after building work began at Blue View, one of the Westcountry's most stunning new coastal developments, only three luxury family homes remain for sale.

Less than a mile from the historic centre of Lyme Regis and with panoramic views over Lyme Bay, eleven of the large four and five bedroom detached homes, which are named after celebrated authors, have already been snapped-up.

The select development by South West homebuilder Cavanna Homes, is in an elevated position on the northern edge of the town, just on the Devon, Dorset border and adjacent to Woodroffe School. Its proximity to some of the region's best primary and secondary schools, including Mrs Ethelstone's Primary in Uplyme and Colyton Grammar School, has attracted families with young children and teenagers alike.

The Sheridan, a four bedroom, three storey split level home, available for £550,000 offers the opportunity of independent living for older teenagers or elderly relatives, in the form of a ground floor that can be "annexed".

Head of Sales and Marketing for Cavanna Homes, Andy James said: "The layout of the Sheridan is appealing to people who may have an elderly relative who enjoys their independence yet appreciates having someone is close at hand."

He explains "The ground floor can be turned into a separate annexe, with its own entrance, small kitchen area, bedroom and living room, leading onto the garden. This living arrangement may also appeal to parents who welcome the opportunity of a separate entrance, for older teenagers coming home late at night!"

Also available are two Ruskin-style properties, with four bedrooms and living accommodation spread over three storeys. There are two en-suite bedrooms and the spacious living accommodation includes a separate dining room, study, utility, downstairs cloakroom, garage and parking. The two Ruskin-style properties still available are on offer from £480,000.

Providing low maintenance energy efficient living, these high specification homes have been finished to an impressive standard with integrated appliances, contemporary fitted kitchens and bathrooms.

Situated between Lyme Regis and Uplyme, Blue View is within easy reach of Lyme Regis town centre and shops, and less than a mile from the seafront and famous 'Cobb'.

For latest details and availability please contact the Sales Office on 01297 444852 Thursday to Monday inclusive 10am - 5pm or email blueview@cavanna.co.uk

Outside of these hours please contact either of our selling agents Stags Estate Agents on 01308 428000 or Martin Diplock Estate Agents on 01297 445500

Blue Chip Holidays Launches £200 Holiday Home Referral Reward Scheme in Dorset

BLUE Chip Holidays, one of the fastest growing luxury self-catering holiday home providers in the UK, has launched a new referral reward scheme in Dorset designed to earn property referrers £200 for each holiday home taken on by the business. The scheme is being launched to enable Blue Chip Holidays to keep up with this year's runaway demand for its high-end four and five-star self-catering properties in Dorset, across the South West, the Isle of Wight and Wales.

Under the scheme, anyone referring a property that goes on to join its portfolio will receive a £200 Marks & Spencer voucher, and there's no limit to the number of properties that can be referred or the number of vouchers that can be earned*. Matthew Boe, Dorset Portfolio Development Manager for Blue Chip Holidays, commented on the scheme, saying: "This year alone bookings in Dorset are eight times higher than they were in 2010, and if we are to keep up with demand over the peak summer weeks, the rest of the year and into 2012, we urgently need to boost our portfolio of high-end properties.

He added: "We want to encourage people to actively think about friends and family who have properties that are lying empty or are underperforming on the long-let market. These could be earning thousands or even tens of thousands of pounds more a year. When you consider that a two-bedroom house could generate an income of £15,000 to £20,000 a year, while a larger property can reach in excess of £50,000, a simple referral could bring huge financial benefit to friends, colleagues acquaintances or relatives. It could also earn the referrer a £200 Marks & Spencer voucher, making it a win-win situation for all concerned."

Blue Chip Holidays aims to expand its portfolio from over 850 properties to well in excess of 1,100 holiday homes by the end of the year. Anyone interested in referring a property should log on to www.bluechipowners.com for full details. Alternatively, properties can be referred by calling 0844 7044987.

How to reduce the cost of motoring

THE cost of fuel is ever increasing and burdens everyone who depends on their vehicle for getting about. Vehicle maintenance is also an expensive but necessary evil.

Long journeys can be high on fatigue and stressful.

You also may be concerned about pollution – greenhouse gases as well as noise – global warming and the world we leave to our children and grandchildren. You can now do something wRIGHT DRIVING is offering a half day course for drivers who want to address all or some of these issues.

The course is designed for two people, maybe friends or relatives, but you may be teamed up with another individual.

The course will assess your current style of driving then a brief presentation and demonstration drive will show you how to reduce those motoring costs.

There is then an opportunity to practice with full tuition from your trainer.

Then it's up to you. In the weeks and months that follow you will, if you practice the techniques:

- Save between 5% and 17% of your fuel bill (Driving Standards Agency figures)
- If you drive 15000 miles per year, with present fuel costs, you could recover the course cost as soon as 5 weeks on fuel alone.
- Reduce wear and tear on your vehicle.

Each candidate will be issued with an Eco-Driving Guide to refer to in the future.

Driving trainer Haydn Wright said: "Eco-driving is the way ahead."

"With a little training and practice to modify your driving techniques you can make an amazing difference to your fuel bills, vehicle maintenance costs and pollution emissions with minimal difference in your journey times."

"The course is ideal for both business and private drivers and would make an ideal gift for a friend or relative."

"The course pays for itself within a few weeks but that will depend on the drivers average mileage."

Škoda 'most satisfying brand to own' according to Which? Car survey ŠKODA is the UK's most satisfying car brand to own... and that's official.

The Czech manufacturer has ranked number one in the 2011 ownership survey by highly respected consumer publication Which? Car. ŠKODA scored a top-ranked satisfaction rating of 88.4 per cent, putting it ahead of every other car manufacturer in the survey.

As well as being named the overall most satisfying brand, four ŠKODA models made it into the survey's top 10 products – the multi-award winning Yeti (4th); the flagship Superb Estate (6th); and two generations of the Superb Hatch (9th and 10th). All of them achieved approval scores higher than 94 per cent, an exceptional performance.

Both hatch and estate derivatives of the Fabia and Superb were also highlighted as 'best buys' in the survey.

Which? Car Editor Richard Headland commented: "If you really want to know about cars, ask the experts – the people who drive them every day. Motorists have told Which? Car that they love practical, good value cars, exemplified by ŠKODA."

Robert Hazelwood, ŠKODA UK Brand Director, commented: "We are delighted with the survey results. It shows just how highly Which? readers rate our products and services. We're very proud of the excellent engineering, industry-leading customer service and great value in every one of our cars, and pleased we're giving people what they really want from the car ownership experience."

The Which? Car survey is the largest of its kind in the UK – and has been for the past five years – with more than 63,000 new and used cars rated. Between December 2010 and March 2011, 52,563 people told Which? Car about the 63,727 cars they owned.

The survey asks owners to rate out of five how satisfied they are with their cars, and how likely they are to recommend them to friends. By combining the responses, Which? Car awards a Customer Score out of 100 per cent.

See the full survey results at www.which.co.uk/cars.

Fewer pedestrians killed as drivers stop speeding

LATEST road safety figures from the DfT show that compliance with 30mph urban speed limits continues to improve while pedestrian fatality levels are falling.

In 1998, 69 per cent of cars were driven faster than the limit in 30mph zones in free-flow conditions – by 2010 this had dropped to 46 per cent. Those exceeding 40 mph in a 30mph limit has halved since 2003, now down to 16 per cent. At the same time, traffic levels are declining on all types of road – a trend observed from 2006 onwards.

Pedestrian fatalities have also reduced significantly, down 40 per cent since 2005 from 671 to 405. Ninety-six per cent of pedestrian accidents happen on urban roads.

Reducing traffic speeds and risk in towns has been high on the road safety agenda, but rural roads, on which drivers are still most likely to be killed, now require even greater priority to reduce casualties further.

IAM director of policy and research Neil Greig said: "The good news is that drivers are not driving faster on the less crowded roads – and more people are sticking to the limit in urban areas where there are many hazards. A combination of consistent road safety messages, new road layouts and police enforcement appears to be paying road safety dividends for city people."

"However despite this positive effect in urban areas, road safety on rural roads, where the majority of serious accidents and fatalities occur, needs much more attention. In the UK, between two-thirds and three-quarters of fatalities occur on rural roads, yet driving on rural roads still isn't a mandatory part of the basic driving test. Most young drivers get plenty of exposure to urban hazards but often their first experience of a rural road comes after the test when they are on their own. This is unacceptable."

Beach rugby fun in Weymouth

■ OVERALL WINNERS: Ridgeway Rugby were the overall Cup winners, beating Dorchester Adults 1 in the final

■ BOWL WINNERS: Kick Ass beat Dorchester Kids 2 to the Bowl

■ TAG! Weymouth Ladies versus Old Gits

Words and photos by CHRIS DAVIS

DESPITE the early rain 20 teams turned up for a fun day of beach tag rugby in Weymouth, including groups from Sherborne, Dorchester, North Dorset, Warminster and even London.

The teams that entered were: Sherborne U16s, James Davis All Stars, Chav's Fat Boys, three Dorchester children's sides, two Weymouth 'Old Gits' sides, Ridgeway, Weymouth Wet Fish Ladies, North Dorset U15s, Weymouth Pirates, Weymouth Buccaneers, Warminster Heroes, two Dorchester adults' teams, Weymouth Pink Ladies, Kick Ass and two 'Hitz' teams.

The first round of games saw the teams divided into four pools of five teams and even with the heavy rain in the morning there was some good rugby on display.

Pool A was won by Chav Fat boys, with Sherborne U16s runners-up. Ridgeway Rugby on Pool B with North Dorset U15s taking second spot. Pool C was won by Dorchester 1 Adults with Warminster Heroes runners-up. Old Gits took Pool D, with the other Dorchester Adults side the runners-up.

As the weather started to warm up, the teams moved into the knockout stage. In the Thimble (for fifth place teams) Dorchester 1 Kids narrowly beat Weymouth Wet Fish Ladies in the first semi-final and Hitz 2 beat Weymouth Buccaneers. In the final, Hitz 2 beat Dorchester 1 Kids to finish in fifth place overall.

In the Shield (for fourth place teams) James Davis All Stars beat Weymouth Pirates and Dorchester 4 Kids beat Hitz 1. In the final, to decide overall fourth place, James Davis All Stars beat Dorchester 4 Kids.

In the Bowl (for third place teams) Old Gits 2 lost to Dorchester 2 kids and Weymouth Pink Ladies lost narrowly to Kick Ass in the semis. Kick Ass beat Dorchester 2 Kids in the final to finish in third place overall.

In the Plate (for second place teams) Sherborne U16s beat North Dorset U15s and Warminster Heroes drew with Dorchester 2 Adults; Sherborne went on to win the final and finished overall runners-up.

In the main cup semi-finals, Chav's Fat Boys lost to Ridgeway Rugby and Dorchester 1 Adults beat the Old Gits. Ridgeway Rugby narrowly beat Dorchester Adults 1 in the final to be crowned overall winners.

Well done to everybody who took part and a special thank you to the Dorset and Wiltshire Society of RFU Referees for providing the refs, the RFU for providing support on the day and the volunteers that helped to set up and run the event: Glyn Arnold, David Stone, Andy Martin, Mike Murphy, Jackie Arnold, Sally Chittick and Denise Davis.

■ IN ACTION: Ian Tibble of Weymouth Old Gits against Weymouth Wet Fish Ladies

■ PLATE WINNERS: Sherborne Under 16s won the Plate to be overall runners-up

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Premier League

DORCHESTER 1ST XI

Dorchester 101-2 beat Ferndown Wayfarers 100 all out by eight wickets

DORCHESTER got back to winning ways after their thumping by Poole Town two weeks ago with an easy eight wicket victory over bottom side Ferndown Wayfarers.

Having slipped up against the East Dorset side in the reverse fixture back in May, the county town were determined not to repeat their experience.

Opening bowlers James Dunham (3-17) and Dan Floyd (2-23) bowled accurately and making the ball swing, started the visitors downfall. Dunham dismissed the top three and with Floyd bowling J Rafferty, Ferndown were reduced to 34-4.

Phil Morley (2-22) then took two quick wickets before Rob Waite (1-6 off seven overs) removed C Armstrong in his first over as Ferndown slumped to 39-7.

A spirited eighth wicket stand of 40 between Sanjay Lankage (29 not out) and J Brooks (8) together with 14 from Rob Stammers held Dorchester up for while before Dan Belt (2-21) brought the innings to a close after 41.3 overs.

Dorchester didn't make the best of starts themselves, losing Steve Gerety in the second over to Neil Sexton, but with Waite anchoring one end to carry his bat for 34 not out, he and Quenton Miller added 57 for the second wicket before Miller was bowled by Rafferty for 38.

Belt (16 not out) joined Waite and they took no time in passing the target in just 23.3 overs.

WEYMOUTH 1ST XI

Weymouth 183 all out lost to Broadstone 184-2 by eight wickets

DESPITE a good opening partnership of 58, Weymouth's batting collapsed and in the end did well to post a target of 183 all out against high flying Broadstone.

Kieron Womble led the way with a fine half century but when he lost Dean Janaway, four more wickets went down for just 11 runs. Although Faraz Ullah (29) and Ben Doidge (30) put together a decent partnership later on, with Steve Trembath (5-45) in good form the Seasideers were dismissed in 43 overs.

In reply Broadstone's openers put on 77 for the first wicket before Sam Chapman was dismissed for 36, but Matt Thomas continued the onslaught before he was out for 80 just short of the victory target.

Division One

WEYMOUTH 2ND XI

Shroton 128-2 beat Weymouth 2nd 127 all out by eight wickets

WEYMOUTH slumped to the bottom of Division One after their eight wicket defeat at the hands of Shroton in their basement battle.

Division Two

BEAMINSTER 1ST XI

Beaminster 245-6 lost to Wimborne & Colehill 2nd 313-5 by 68 runs

BEAMINSTER are running out of games to save themselves from relegation after they were well beaten by fellow strugglers Wimborne & Colehill 2nds at the Memorial Playing Fields on Saturday.

Having removed their openers for just 34, a third wicket stand of 99 put them on the back foot before Wilson savaged them with a century, and although nearly every Beaminster batsmen scored runs they could not match the required run rate.

Wimborne won the toss and batted on a wicket with a short boundary closest to the bank. Beaminster's opening bowler Simon Jones (2-53) and skipper Ross Baker applied pressure as they swung the ball and found movement off the pitch and Baker made an early breakthrough bowling Stratten, before Jones had Hall (28) caught.

They continued to tie down the visitors and helped by a number of dropped catches crawled to 66-2 after 22 overs before eventually Kerins (41) and opposing captain Chris Dunk got on top.

A brutal passage of play followed with Wimborne flaying the Beaminster bowling to all parts of the ground particularly peppering the short boundary as Dunk (81) and the excellent Wilson (104) hit 180 off 15 overs

None of the bowlers escaped punishment as Beaminster had no answer to the onslaught, and Wimborne closed on a daunting 313-5 off of their 45 overs.

In reply, Beaminster's batsmen showed some fight and character taking advantage of some sloppy bowling. Openers Rich Runyard and Fred Everitt each scored 24 whilst Nick David (45) and Jones (64) put on an excellent 85 run third wicket partnership. Will Everitt (30) and Dan Hillier (31 not out) also played well together as Beaminster closed on 245-6 but unfortunately it was not enough for victory.

DORCHESTER 2ND XI

Ferndown Wayfarers 2nd 165 all out lost to Dorchester 2nd 190 all out by 25 runs

DORCHESTER 2nds held their midtable position after a 25 run win over bottom side Ferndown Wayfarers 2nds.

Division Three

BRIDPORT 1ST XI

Bridport 127 all out lost to Shillingstone 217-8 by 90 runs

BRIDPORT are to invest in a bowling machine to grace their new cricket nets which were recently opened. Unfortunately it is unlikely to help them this season as another batting collapse saw them go down against league leaders Shillingstone to leave them rock bottom.

"Confidence is very low at the moment," said skipper Mark Smith, "and we appear to have a problem building partnerships and in our shot selection."

"The bowling machine won't help this season, but hopefully will be an asset next year."

Bridport contained the free scoring visitors quite well early on and were glad to dismiss the openers Marshall (26) and Andrews (27) who had done well in the reverse fixture, for relatively low scores, but with all the top five making good contributions the score crept above the 200 mark.

Dave Herbert was the main wicket taker with 4-42, but there were good stints also from Wes Lewis and Dave Backhouse.

Herbert (28), Liam Toohill (10) and Sam Challis saw Bridport passed the 50 mark but they capitulated from 52-1 to 127 all out with only Luke King (23) showing any resistance. Marshall claimed 5-31 off 11 overs and Edwards 3-29.

Bridport have a crunch match this Saturday when they entertain Blandford 2nds who sit just above them in the fight for the wooden spoon.

CATTISTOCK

Portland RT 140-6 beat Cattistock 139 all out by four wickets

IN A game that could have gone either way, it was a third wicket stand of 67 between Simon Proffitt (34) and Jan Davey (36) that gave Portland RT the edge.

Batting first Cattistock were reduced to 19-3, but aided by 47 extras - all but eight of them wides - and 24 from Bradley and 20 from Ben Golledge who featured in a seventh wicket stand of 51 with Buddy Langford (18), the visitors posted a total of 139 all out.

Although Portland collapsed to 110-6 after Proffitt and Davey had appeared to have taken them to the edge of victory, their seventh wicket pairing resisted Cattistock's attempts in using seven bowlers, to see them home. Tim Hey (2-7) and Billy Walbridge (2-32) returned the best figures for the visitors

MARTINSTOWN 1ST XI

Martinstown 149-4 beat Compton House 147 all out by six wickets

MARTINSTOWN maintained their grip on second place with this comprehensive victory over Compton House.

The visitors won the toss and decided to bat and all their top six batsmen made double figures with captain N Price top scoring with 37.

However no one really got on top of the bowling led by Stuart Fry who took 5-34 from ten overs well supported by Matthew Camp (2-27) and Danny Dancer (1-28) and the more expensive Liam Banfield (2-54).

Martinstown lost Ed Nicholls (0) and Tom Adams (2) with less than double figures on the board to Price (2-32), but a wonderful third wicket century stand between Henry Lewis (51 not out) and Fry (72) set up the victory

Sideline skipper Nick Quintrell said: "Another really impressive performance from our team in the field and with the bat. Matt Camp bowled superbly at first change getting the ball swinging both ways and Stu bowled with customary fire and was well worth his 5-fer. We are beginning to bowl and field well as a unit and making things tough for opposition batsmen"

"After losing Ed and Tom with the score below 10 we could easily gone into our shells but Hennes (Lewis) and Stuart batted with great skill and authority and we chased the runs down in 27 overs."

"These two admirable young cricketers are both the product of Martinstown's brilliant junior system as were nine of the eleven who played on Saturday, which emphasises the benefits of investing in youth."

Division Three

BEAMINSTER 2ND XI

Poole Town 86-7 beat Beaminster 84 all out by three wickets

DESPITE a magnificent bowling display by Ade Phillips, Beaminster 2nds just failed to register their second win of the season.

Runs were hard to come by at the Canford Arena and Alex Atkinson's 18 in Beaminster's total of 84 all out was the highest score on either side. Dave Penman was his usual resolute self, occupying well over half the overs available for his 14 runs, with the only other batters to make double figures being Josh Singleton and Shaun Annetts.

However a shock appeared to be on the cards when the hosts replied when they were reduced to 33- 6, thanks largely to Ade Phillips's magnificent haul of 5-18, but they ultimately had sufficient depth to see them across the finishing line.

WEYMOUTH 3RD XI

Hamworthy Rec 2nd beat Weymouth 3rd - (scratched)

Division Five

DORCHESTER 3RD XI

Pimperne 138-3 beat Dorchester 3rd 134 all out by seven wickets

A POOR batting performance on a very batsmen friendly wicket proved costly as Dorchester 3rds lost by seven wickets to fellow promotion candidates Pimperne; an excellent 81 not out from the experienced Ian Davis seing Pimperne through to victory.

Dorchester batted solidly after losing Oliver in the fifth over. However a 50-run partnership between Jae Miller (43) and George Thomas (18) came to an abrupt end when both batsmen, who looked well set for big innings, were caught behind with the score on 69-3.

When Quinten and Lucas fell leg before to Andy Kelly, Dorchester were left struggling on 78-5, but Rhys Cole decided to attack the bowling and smashed a quick 23 off 10 balls but a further two wickets fell without adding any runs on 113-7. A cameo partnership of 21 was added by 14-year-old debutant Jake Pike (14) and England Disabled International Callum Tucker (8).

Pimperne innings started cautiously against the young Dorchester attack of Pike and 16-year-old Karl Malone. It was Pike who claimed his first senior wicket when he had the experienced Kevin Langdown caught by Thomas at point fending away a short ball with the score on 17, but 40 quick runs were added by Ian Davis and captain Greg Regan before Regan was bowled by the opposition captain Pete Tucker for a quick fire 26 with the score on 57-2.

No further wickets were lost until the innings was nearing to a close when Mark Coy was well caught at deep mid on by Miller off Cole. Fittingly it was left to the experienced Ian Davis (81no) to smash the winning boundary and wind up a good seven wicket victory.

The Dorchester skipper Tucker said: "Pimperne are a very good experienced team and it was a men against boys scenario, which is bound to happen at times with a young team. They were able to adjust well to batting conditions and only Jae Miller and Rhys Cole did that for Dorchester. Bowling is always very difficult at Pimperne but hopefully the Dorchester young lads will have picked up a few pointers in their cricket education."

Division Six

ABBOTSBURY

Branksome 2nds 207- 5 beat

Abbotsbury 185 all out by 22 runs

ABBOTSBURY fell to a close defeat on Saturday at the hands of Branksome. Bowling first, the Swans' attack did not have its usual potency, allowing the home side to post a challenging target of over 200, with the visitors gaining only two bowling points.

The Abbotsbury batsmen did make sure of the full five batting points, but were dismissed 20 runs short of their goal, eventually missing out by only two runs on the three point bonus for reaching within ten per cent of the target.

Skipper Simon Pengelly said: "It was disappointing as we had a strong side out this week. The team are now looking forward to our crunch clash with local rivals Bridport."

BRIDPORT 2ND XI

Sturminster Marshall 212-6 beat

Bridport 2nd 94 all out by 118 runs

LEADERS Sturminster Marshall eventually won through to maintain their lead in Division Six although Duane Gay gave them a bit of a shock by taking three quick wickets after they had got a start.

Gay bowled Tony Lockwood (12) after the openers had put on 39 for the first wicket and then immediately sent Alex Filleul back to the pavilion for a duck. When he bowled the other opener Jon Warren for 24 the hosts were suddenly 42-3.

However Ross Humphrey steadied the ship and although Duane Gay (4-48) bowled Paul Maitland (12) to leave them 70-4, Humphrey (77) and Will Gage (48) added 98 for the fifth wicket before they became victims of Rodney Gay (2-46) leaving Tim Smith 23 not out as Stur closed their innings on 212-6.

Bridport made a solid start in reply with Rodney Gay (24), Tom Melandino (10) and Duane Gay (32) seeing them past the 50 mark, but Humphrey made it a day to remember as he ripped through the Bridport lower order claiming 5-17 and with Filleul (3-22) they demolished the visitors for just 94 all out.

Captain Jamie Dolman said: "Having won the toss I decided to filed as the wicket was green and in Duane Gay and Brian Riggs we had two bowlers who could exploit some swing, and it worked early on with Duane getting four wickets.

"Because of shortages we had three lads under 15 playing, but they all acquitted themselves fairly well, and the team fielded reasonably well also."

Division Eight

MARTINSTOWN 2ND XI

Stalbridge 3rd 48 all out lost to

Martinstown 227 all out by 179 runs

MARTINSTOWN 2nds recorded an easy win over Stalbridge 3rds after being asked to bat first.

Opener Liam Moss (38) provided a good platform for the innings before skipper Tom Bracey (51) took over the mantle, hitting six 4s and two 6s in his half century. He got lower order support from Chris Monteith who included six 4s in his 37, with M Drake (5-30) the best of the home bowlers.

Only four Stalbridge batsmen scored runs in reply with opener and captain A Balchin top scoring with nine (after extras 24) as the Martinstown bowlers ran riot.

Opening bowlers Chris Read (3-11) and Alex Skidmore (2-24) set the pace but it was the support bowlers who cleaned up with Monteith claiming 2-0 from three maidens and Declan Croft 2-2 from three, whilst Robin Fello claimed the last wicket with his third ball.

LONGHAM GARDEN MACHINERY SUNDAY LEAGUE

Division Four

SYMENE

Portland RT 209-8 beat Symene 158 all out by 51 runs

THIS game between the top two sides could have gone either way with both having opportunities to win.

Portland RT, as in the reverse fixture, got off to a great start with Chris Leak (71) and G Price (44) putting on 127 for the first wicket. However once the Symene bowlers made the breakthrough wickets tumbled. They had a great chance to make their job easier when with the hosts struggling on 186-6 the visitors put down two simple catches in successive balls, allowing Portland to post a target of 209-8. Marcel Grunschloss with two wickets in his last over took 3-51 with Colin Willcox (2-46), Liam Toohill (2-47) and Graham Bartlett (1-31) sharing the other wickets.

Symene appeared well in control in reply with Sam Challis and Liam Toohill going strong in a 60 run third wicket stand. Portland heads began to drop but the unfortunate run out of Toohill (63) saw Symene capitulate with some poor shots and decision making and they were eventually dismissed for 158 all out.

CHARLTON DOWN

Stalbridge 239-2 beat Charlton Down 185-7 by 54 runs

CHARLTON Down down Stalbridge too strong for them and as a result fall further behind their hosts in the fight for third place.

READERS' MID-WESSEX LEAGUE

Division One

BROADWINDSOR

Broadwindsor 170 all out beat Cranmore 168-8 by 2 runs

NEEDING four off Ross Baker's last ball Cranmore could only manage one and went down to a two run defeat in an exciting match.

Put into bat, Broadwindsor were bowled out for 170 with Chris Park (51) striking an excellent half century supported by Joe Hawkins (39) and Baker (23).

The game ebbed and flowed as Cranmore, for whom J Williams hit 50, lost wickets at regular intervals to the bowling of Baker (2-25), skipper Adie Phillips (2-30) and Park (2-29).

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 1ST XI

Uplyme 177 all out beat Honiton 112 all out by 65 runs MARK Brimicombe was the star of Uplyme's innings of 177 against Honiton on Saturday, as he scored a splendid 59 not out. Steve Batey's 26 and Caddy's 22 also contributed to the defendable total.

As it was, only Honiton's Beighton (33) and Holmes (40) had any response to the Uplyme attack of Messrs Caddy and Caddy, with the brothers taking figures of 4 for 19 and 4 for 29 respectively. Honiton were all out for just 112 and Uplyme won by a satisfying 65 runs.

D Division (East)

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI

Honiton 284 for 6 beat Uplyme 167 all out by 117 runs

NOT so much luck for Uplyme's second string with Paul Crompton the pick of the bowlers (4-52), and Oli Borgeat (45) and Shannon Grossberg (47) best with the bat.

LYME REGIS BOWLS

WITH PAUL MOFFITT

WHAT a difference a week makes, back to the old ways in the county leagues.

That said, the men's 'B' team scrambled home with one shot to spare to earn eight points whilst the championship side went down by one shot and received just two points!

The ladies had a difficult outing at top of the league Poole Park, but did manage one point for a draw on Sue Rowe's rink.

The 'A' team managed just two points even with the services of Barry Rattenbury on loan from the championship side.

On the friendly front-not to say that league games aren't friendly - Lyme managed to win all three.

RESULTS

Dorset Men's Championship: Lyme 49, Greenhill 50 - B Gillett, E Skeemer, P Eagles, P Moffitt 15-18; P Stephens, J Eaton, S Pomeroy, P Pomeroy 13-14;

R Richardson, T Allman, D Meylan, C Barber 21-18.

It is of interest in this particular game that all three rinks were tying at the end of the 20th end.

West Dorset Men's Division One: Lyme A 55, Melcombe Regis 69 - C Bell, S Dowling, J Beadsley, D Perry 18-28; M Knight, G Clode, D Pomeroy, B Parsons 22-16; R Hobbs, J Moseley, M Thorne, B Rattenbury 15-25.

Division Two: Lyme B 46, Bridport B 45 - B Downes, H Keep, R Moody, G Cozens 14-19; R McLennan, T Payne, B Stephens, R Cridge 17-15; R Turpin, D Wood, R Winterborne, J Belger 15-11.

Dorset Ladies' Division One: Lyme 46, Poole Park 59 - J Moffitt, M Gillett, J Parsons, K Clissold 14-22; Clare Barber, M Bartlett, L Broom, S Rowe 18-18; N Stephens, J Perry, Chris Barber, A Allman 14-19.

Bandits continue winning streak

BRIDPORT'S youth Autograss racing team, the Bridport Bandits continued their winning streak with wins at the Wessex Autograss Club race meeting on Sunday, July 24th.

Bridport drivers Ryan Hughes (18), Nikky Roberts (15) Luke Antinaro (16) and Troy Carter (14) all drove to a high standard and scored well.

Troy in his first outing in 'Hattie' - the Peugeot 106 - took the car competently through his heats with some impressive overtaking moves.Luke proved himself the passing champion as he regularly fought for the inside line in the close racing that is always a feature of Autograss. Nicky showed that he is getting to grips with the Junior Special finishing first, second and third in his three heats.

The star of the day was Ryan who raced Hattie in the men's Class One. His start in the third heat took him into the lead and was only caught by the current league champion on the final lap. Finishing second in such a quality field was very impressive.

Treasurer Stuart McKenzie made a good recovery after rolling his Mini - his own, not a Bandits' car - following a dramatic crash in the men's Class One heats. McKenzie was checked over by the medics in attendance and went out in his next race; he was placed second to secure a place in the final, where he came fifth. McKenzie will continue to race the car this season.

● THE Bridport Bandits support young people aged between 12 and 18 to participate in motorsport with the National Autograss Sports Association (NASA).

The Bandits race every fortnight during the season and their home track is the Wessex Motor Racing Club at Bearley, near Tintinhull, Yeovil.

The club meets every Monday and Thursday, 7-9pm, at the Bandits workshop (next to the youth club in Gundry Lane). For membership and information, contact Bill Davis on 07702 193737.

Personal bests tumble for Warriors at Dorset meet

THIS year's annual Dorset Development Meet at Litledown, Bournemouth, saw West Dorset Warriors' swimmers achieve new personal bests in more than two thirds of the races they swam.

This impressive effort by all swimmers resulted in the Dorchester club coming second equal overall with Christchurch Seagulls behind eventual winners Swim Bournemouth.

In total the Warriors collected 100 medals; 36 were gold, 24 silver and 40 bronze.

Prominent amongst them were 12 year old Charlie Hitchcock winning six gold and five silver medals, swimming faster than the previous competition best time on seven occasions, whilst Amie Buttler led the way for the girls winning five gold medals and one bronze.

Noticeable amongst the improved swimmers was Lauren Oddy (11) who received the award for most improved time by a female swimmer, improving her 200m backstroke time by 42 seconds.

In other highlights, the younger swimmers, following on from their success in the Junior League also contributed to the successful weekend, with George Kelman-Johns winning three gold, three silver and one bronze medal including a significant new personal best time in the nine years 200m Individual Medley to win in a new competition best time.

William Walden, making his debut, collected seven medals in the 10 years including a hat trick of gold medals in the 50m, 100m and 200m backstroke.

Competition was high in the older boys' age groups but Ryan Knott confirmed his consistency with three gold medals, including two new competition best times, whilst Guy Buttler collected two golds, also in the 16-18 year group, including competition best times in the 100m and 200m backstroke.

James Ross swam bravely on the Saturday to win two gold, two silver and one bronze having injured himself during the 100m butterfly, and Aaron Fryer won the 200m backstroke beating his previous best time by just under 32 seconds.

The girls' races continue to be highly competitive and this year saw Warriors swimming with determination and a mixture of medals across all age groups.

Charlotte Fairman found her mojo and swam exceptionally well to win the 200m backstroke, whilst Jessica Northcote continued to swim with confidence collecting two gold medals, one in a competition best time in the 200m breaststroke.

Competing in their first Dorset Development meet, Chloe Cake, 11 years, started the weekend with an aggressive swim in the 200m breaststroke knocking 29 seconds off her personal best time, and Erin Gowers, 9 years, reduced her 200m Breaststroke time by 28 seconds.

Not to be outdone Katie Cramp also improved her personal best time in the 200m breaststroke by 23

BOB BUCKLER RACING

WITH STUART BROOM

BUCKLER'S ROLL CONTINUES

THE incredible run of success of Bob Buckler's horses this season continues as Mister Matt won his second consecutive race to take the Henley trainers wins this season to seven from 21 runners with a further eight being placed.

It also continued the eight-year-old's superb form of late with his eighth place finish in nine races since February.

It appeared three from home in the William Hill Handicap Chase at Uttoxeter that he might have a race on his hands as Colin Tizzard's Dean's Grange came to challenge after jumping the third last. However when asked for a response there was none, and James Best aboard Mister Matt moved ahead to win comfortably by three lengths.

Buckler said: "It looked worrying but the other horse is renowned for not having much of a finish when he comes off the bridle, and that proved true again."

Although Mister Matt jumped well he did tend to twist a little bit in mid air, something Buckler will be attending too this week.

"We're not sure whether he has a little problem in his back or maybe pulled a muscle, hence his jumping action, but he will be seeing the physio this week to see what the problem is. Providing it is not anything serious he will have a couple of weeks off before racing again. We have a race at Cartmel pencilled in towards the end of August, or alternatives at Hereford and Newton Abbot that we are looking at."

Tiger Breeze had a final run to impress his trainer on the same card, and although he jumped well and galloped to the finish to finish fifth after giving himself every chance in the musicmagpie.co.uk Novices' Handicap Hurdle, he couldn't stay the pace and will now go to the sales at Ascot next month.

Ballygulleen made his first appearance since April after two disappointing races when he was pulled up, and although he did complete the course in the Weatherbys Bloodstock Insurance Handicap Chase at Worcester he was tailed off last of the finishers. He had jumped well in mid-division but dropped back as the race picked up six fences from home. Buckler said: "He'll come on for the run."

With the new build up to the busiest part of the season over the winter months, some of the horses are already returning to the yard after their summer break.

Wiltshire claims limited ton record

STEPHEN Wiltshire became the first disabled cricketer ever to score a century in limited over cricket.

The Dorset player made 105 not out from just 46 balls playing for England against Wales at Newport, South Wales recently.

Wiltshire from Bridport and Calum Tucker from Dorchester were playing in the afternoon game for the less disabled, and Wiltshire's innings which included 10 sixes and 10 fours, and with bad weather threatening allowed England captain Dave Hassell to declare his sides innings at 177-2 from 18 overs.

Wales replied with 16-2 from four overs before the heavens opened, and although one more over was bowled which reaped one run for Wales for the loss of three wickets to leave the hosts on 17-5, England won with a better score at the same point in the game.

Four other Dorset players, Mark Pickersgill, Tom Griffiths, Simon Penny and Michael Chant took part in the morning match for those with more severe disabilities which was won by Wales who passed England's total of 86-2 off 20 overs for the loss of two wickets off just 14 overs.

The day ended with a medal ceremony and each team winning one game.

who wishes to learn to box.

"Training takes place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7pm, and anyone interested should bring a parent with them to the gym which is situated at the junction of St Michael's Lane and Gundry Lane."

WHAT THE MANAGERS SAY...

WITH STUART BROOM

BRIDPORT FC

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior has completed the signing of Sam Charles, his brother Joe and Tom Richardson, as he looks to boost his squad ahead of the new season.

Whilst striker Sam had already pledged his allegiance to Senior earlier in the summer, the former Reading striker was boosted by the addition of his brother Joe, a central defender, and striker Tom Richardson, who has produced some impressive displays in pre-season matches, both penning Western League forms.

Sam has been in outstanding form since returning to training, scoring both goals against Portland United in the Bees' 2-2 draw last Tuesday to add to the two he bagged against Bournemouth Poppies just three days earlier.

Senior said: "Sam has looked really sharp since he returned to training and been impressive, and has formed good partnerships up front with both Matt Moors and Tom."

"Joe has shown that he is more than capable, whilst Tom has looked very sharp, and I am pleased that they have all signed forms."

Bridport also played a goalless stalemate against Westlands on Saturday.

"I was pleased with both performances for, although both are Dorset Premier League sides, they are both very ambitious" said Senior.

"They contain a number of experienced players and would more than hold their own in the Toolstation First Division."

Unfortunately both Moors and Richardson picked up injuries against Portland that sidelines them for the game against Plymouth Argyle Youth.

● BRIDPORT Reserves beat Westlands' second string with a Murray Legg goal, with former Seaton Town players Cameron Vere and Rob Fellingham once again impressing Senior.

● DAWLISH Town have pulled out of the Toolstation Western League Premier Division which means that Bridport's second scheduled league match away to the Devon outfit on August 16th and the reverse fixture on September 20th have been expunged.

WEYMOUTH FC

BRENDON King told his players not to get carried away following Weymouth's 3-0 victory over a West Ham XI at the Bob Lucas Stadium on Saturday.

Although the Hammers side did not include any of their expected Championship side, all the players carried last year's Premiership squad numbers and represented a true test for the Terras.

King said: "It was a pretty decent performance against a decent side. The performance was more important than the result, but we got both."

"We totally dominated the game and our work rate was excellent. We were well organised and hard to break down."

"However, the most important thing, as I told the players after the match, was not to get carried away. It was a great foundation to work on but we don't get three points for the result."

King was buoyed by the signing of Marshallsay and Sam Poole - who once again showed what a prospect he could be - on one year contracts, whilst Reed and Lewis Tasker both signed non-contract deals. The situation regarding Rob Wolleaston is still to be resolved. Despite having turned out for Woking in a pre-season friendly, the former Chelsea player has denied that he is joining them, only using the game for match fitness, and appears to have nailed his colours to Weymouth's mast.

King confirmed that talks are still ongoing but stressed that he only has a limited budget which it appears seems to be the deciding factor on whether he will appear in Terras colours again.

"With the first three games against sides from higher leagues we have shown good and improving form and only conceded one goal," said King.

"All the lads have done everything I have asked of them and whilst we need a couple more players, I have been successful in getting a good squad together."

● WEYMOUTH have a busy schedule this week with games against Bridgwater Town (Wednesday), Portland United (Thursday) and Dorchester Town on Saturday.

DORCHESTER TOWN FC

DORCHESTER Town assistant manager, Phil Simkin, whilst not getting carried away by pre-season friendly results, believes the Magpies are well equipped to go into the new season.

A 3-1 win over fellow Blue Square South rivals Thurrock on Saturday and a 1-1 draw at Hamworthy United on Monday evening saw them complete six of their 11 pre-season friendlies.

"All the games have been extremely useful in our build up to the season, and whilst the results don't matter too much in the context of what we are looking to achieve, wins give you confidence," said Simkin.

"However it is all about being ready for August 13th and our first match at Dover."

"We didn't have a good start last year after a good pre-season, and it left us with a lot of ground to make up, so we want to be equipped and ready this time."

The game against Thurrock produced three outstanding performances from Ryan Dovell, Chris Flood and Ben Dickenson which augers well for the future.

Dovell is on the brink of signing a contract this week after moving from Bridport. Flood who joined the club initially on loan from Crawley Town at the beginning of the year before signing a contract until the end of the season, dismissed speculation by signing a new contract at The Avenue in the summer, and is showing consistent form in pre-season with four goals, two against Thurrock of which one was outstanding.

Simkin also reported that Dickenson is now up to full speed after turning his ankle in early training and is really showing his talents: "He is exceptionally quick and sharp and was in top form against Thurrock."

Negotiations are ongoing with Nathan Peprah-Annan who could return to the club for a third spell.

Central defender Gary Bowles, having impressed in last week's 2-2 draw at Winchester City, has been invited to train with AFC Bournemouth this week.

Castle Building & Construction LtdINSIDE: Uplyme & Lyme Regis beat Honiton by 65 runs*Lyme veterans go head to head

WHILST the weather last Wednesday was not favourable for good golf it did not deter two of the longest serving members of Lyme Regis Golf Club from taking to the course for a 'head to head' contest for nonagenarians.

The combined memberships of the two ninety-year-olds Lyn Baker and Harry Scotting adds up to more years than the club has been in existence with Lyn being the senior member with 71 years of membership.

Inevitably both know almost every blade of grass on a personal basis and they used their knowledge to very good effect. With both players hitting the ball straight and true, albeit with less distance than in their earlier years, the match proved to be a close fought contest.

The eventual winner, Lyn Baker by 3 & 1, played exceptionally well throughout whilst Harry had the misfortune to 'find' several bunkers on his way around the course.

rell staged his golf day.

Whilst the object of the day was not to raise funds, the £250 that was raised will be added to the coffers of the captain's charity - the HUB youth centre in Lyme Regis.

With over 100 golfers taking part and several 'novelty' prizes, as well as the team and individual prizes on offer, competition was fierce throughout the day.

Inevitably and most satisfyingly the Stableford scores more than matched the course conditions with some significant handicap reductions as a result.

First to take to the field were the junior members. Their 18 hole individual competition was won by Danny Searle with 44 points with George Yorke in second place with 42 points.

In the nine hole competition for the younger juniors the winner was Nick Rose with 16 points and the runner up was Billy Gait with 13 points.

In Division One of the main competition the winner was Simon Rattenbury with 41 points, in second place was Bruce Morgan with 39 on count-back over Scott Love. Scott, playing off scratch now, has the satisfaction of achieving a handicap reduction to -3.

Scores in Division Two were equally impressive with Royston Davies the winner with 42 points, followed by Stuart Broome with 41 points and David Jones with 40 points. The lowest gross score was achieved by Scott Love with a net 68.

Team winners with a score of 88 points playing best two scores per hole were John Wight, Stuart Wight and Barry Dennis. Nearest the Pin in two shots on the 5th hole was Adrian Morgan; in the other nearest the pin competitions the winners were: 3rd hole - Simon Battenbury, 8th hole - Mike Ebdon, 11th hole - Tom Glover, 13th hole - John Yorke.

Following the main golf event, participants and guests took part in a putting competition organised by club professional Duncan Driver.

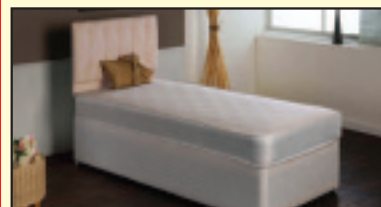

This was won by Richard Yorke with an excellent score of 14.
